CASE NO. 3:13-cv-04704-RS
STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

24 25 In order to expedite the flow of discovery materials, facilitate the prompt resolution of 26 disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, adequately protect information the parties are 27 entitled to keep confidential, ensure that only materials the parties are entitled to keep confidential 28

1 are subject to such treatment, and ensure that the parties are permitted reasonably necessary uses of 2 such materials in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c), it is 3 hereby ORDERED THAT:

4 I. INFORMATION SUBJECT TO THIS ORDER

5 Discovery materials produced in this case may be labeled as one of three categories:
6 CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY and RESTRICTED 7 CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE, as set forth in Sections A through C below. All three of the 8 identified categories of information shall be identified collectively in this Order by the title
9 "Protected Information."

10 A. Information Designated as Confidential Information

11 1. For purposes of this Order, "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION" shall 12 mean all information or material produced for or disclosed in connection with this action to a 13 receiving party that a producing party, including any party to this action and any non-party 14 producing information or material voluntarily or pursuant to a subpoena or a court order in 15 connection with this action, considers to comprise confidential technical, sales, marketing, 16 financial, or other commercially sensitive information, whether embodied in physical objects, 17 documents, or the factual knowledge of persons, and which has been so designated by the producing 18 party. Any CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION obtained by any party from any person pursuant to 19 discovery in this litigation may be used only for purposes of this litigation.

20 2. Any document or tangible thing containing or including any 21 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION may be designated as such by the producing party by marking 22 it "CONFIDENTIAL" prior to or at the time copies are furnished to the receiving party.

23 3. All CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION not reduced to documentary, 24 tangible or physical form or which cannot be conveniently designated as set forth in Paragraph 25 I.A.2, shall be designated by the producing party by informing the receiving party of the designation 26 in writing.

27 4. Any documents (including physical objects) made available for inspection by 28 counsel for the receiving party prior to producing copies of selected items shall initially be

1 considered, as a whole, to constitute CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION (unless otherwise 2 designated at the time of inspection) and shall be subject to this Order. Thereafter, the producing 3 party shall have a reasonable time to review and designate the appropriate documents as 4 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION (or otherwise as appropriate) prior to furnishing copies to the 5 receiving party.

- 6 5. The following information is not CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION:
- 7 a. Any information that is or, after its disclosure to a receiving party, 8 becomes part of the public domain as a result of publication not 9 involving a violation of this Order or other obligation to maintain the 10 confidentiality of such information;
- 11 b. Any information that the receiving party can show was already 12 publicly known prior to the disclosure; and,
- 13 c. Any information that the receiving party can show by written records 14 was received by it from a source who obtained the information 15 lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the producing 16 party.

- 17 6. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL and information contained therein 18 shall be available only to:
- 19 a. Outside litigation counsel of record and supporting personnel 20 employed in the law firm(s) of outside litigation counsel of record, 21 such as attorneys, paralegals, legal translators, legal secretaries, legal 22 clerks and shorthand reporters;
- 23 b. Technical advisers and their necessary support personnel, subject to 24 the provisions of Paragraphs III.A through III.F herein, who have 25 signed the form attached hereto as Attachment A; the term "technical 26 adviser" shall mean independent outside expert witnesses or 27 consultants (i.e., not employees of a party) with whom counsel may 28 deem it necessary to consult and who comply with Section III;

- c. Up to two in-house counsel, who are members of at least one state bar in good standing, with responsibility for managing this litigation. William Bierce, of Bierce & Kenerson, P.C., 420 Lexington Avenue #2920, New York, New York 10170, shall qualify as one of Plaintiff's in-house counsel and may have access to documents designated CONFIDENTIAL and information contained therein upon signing the form attached hereto as Exhibit A;
- d. The Court, its personnel and stenographic reporters (under seal or with other suitable precautions determined by the Court);
- e. Independent legal translators retained to translate in connection with this action; independent stenographic reporters and videographers retained to record and transcribe testimony in connection with this action; graphics, translation, or design services retained by counsel for purposes of preparing demonstrative or other exhibits for deposition, trial, or other court proceedings in the actions; independent discovery vendors retained to provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; preparing exhibits or demonstrations, etc.) in connection with this action; non-technical jury or trial consulting services; and,
- f. Mock jurors retained for the purpose of this litigation, provided that each juror: (i) is not presently employed by either of the parties hereto for purposes other than this Action and (ii) has signed the form attached hereto as Attachment A. The party desiring to disclose Protected Information to a mock juror must first disclose the name and address of the juror to the producing party. The producing party shall have ten business days after such notice is given, during which disclosure to the mock juror is prohibited, to object in writing to the

1 proposed disclosure. A party's objection to the disclosure of 2 Protected Information to a mock juror shall state with particularity the 3 ground(s) of the objection. The objecting party's consent to the 4 disclosure of Protected Information to a mock juror shall not be 5 unreasonably withheld.

6 B. Information Designated Confidential Outside Counsel Only

7 1. The CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY designation is 8 reserved for CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that constitutes (a) marketing, financial, sales, 9 web traffic, research and development, or technical, data or information; (b) commercially sensitive 10 competitive information, including, without limitation, information obtained from a nonparty 11 pursuant to a current Nondisclosure Agreement ("NDA"); (c) information or data relating to future 12 products not yet commercially released and/or strategic plans; and, (d) commercial agreements, 13 settlement agreements or settlement communications, the disclosure of which is likely to cause 14 harm to the competitive position of the producing party. Documents marked CONFIDENTIAL 15 OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, HIGHLY 16 CONFIDENTIAL or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL shall be treated as if designated 17 CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY. In determining whether information should be 18 designated as CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY, each party agrees to use such 19 designation only in good faith.

20 2. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY and 21 information contained therein shall be available only to the persons or entities listed in Paragraphs 22 I.A.6.a, b, d, e, and f subject to any terms set forth or incorporated therein and not any person or 23 entity listed in Paragraph I.A.6.c.

24 C. Information Designated Restricted Confidential - Source Code

25 1. The RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE designation is 26 reserved for CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that contains or substantively relates to a party's 27 "Source Code," which shall mean documents containing or substantively relating to confidential, 28 proprietary and/or trade secret source code or technical design documentation. The following

1 conditions shall govern the production, review and use of source code or design documentation
2 information.

3 2. All such Source Code, and any other Protected Information designated as 4 “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL —SOURCE CODE,” shall be subject to the following 5 provisions:

6 a. Source Code, to the extent any producing party agrees to provide any 7 such information, shall ONLY be made available for inspection, not 8 produced except as provided for below, in electronic format at the 9 office of the producing party’s primary outside counsel of record in 10 this action. Source Code will be loaded on a single, non-networked 11 computer that is password protected and maintained in a secure, 12 locked area. Use or possession of any input/output device (e.g., USB 13 memory stick, cameras or any camera-enabled device, CDs, floppy 14 disk, portable hard drive, laptop, etc.) is prohibited while accessing 15 the computer containing the Source Code. All persons entering the 16 locked room containing the Source Code must agree to submit to 17 reasonable security measures to ensure they are not carrying any 18 prohibited items before they will be given access to the locked room.
19 The computer containing Source Code will be made available for 20 inspection during regular business hours, upon reasonable notice to 21 the producing party, which shall not be less than three business days 22 in advance of the requested inspection. Defendants will also make 23 Source Code available at the New York office of their primary 24 outside counsel of record in this action pursuant to the terms above 25 upon notice of not less than five business days in advance of the 26 requested inspection. If the receiving party intends to use Source 27 Code or printouts of Source Code at a specific deposition in this 28 matter, the receiving party shall provide no less than five business days notice of its intent to use Source Code at the deposition. Any deposition where Defendants' Source Code or printouts of Defendants' Source Code will be made available must take place at the San Francisco office of Defendants' primary outside counsel of record in this action.

b. The receiving party's outside counsel and/or experts may request that commercially available licensed software tools for viewing and searching Source Code be installed on the secured computer. The receiving party must provide the producing party with the CD or DVD containing such software tool(s) and any necessary software licenses at least four business days in advance of the inspection.

c. The receiving party's outside counsel and/or expert shall be entitled to take notes relating to the Source Code but may not copy any portion of the Source Code into the notes. No copies of all or any portion of the Source Code may leave the room in which the Source Code is inspected except as otherwise provided herein. Further, no other written or electronic record of the Source Code is permitted except as otherwise provided herein.

d. No person shall copy, e-mail, transmit, upload, download, print, photograph or otherwise duplicate any portion of the designated Source Code, except as the receiving party may request a reasonable number of pages of Source Code to be printed by the producing party, but only if and to the extent necessary for use in this action. In no event may the receiving party print more than 25 consecutive pages of Source Code during the duration of the case without prior written approval by the producing party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. In no event may the receiving party print an aggregate total of more than 500 pages of Source Code during the duration of

1 the case without prior written approval by the producing party, which 2 shall not be unreasonably withheld. Within five business days or 3 such additional time as necessary due to volume requested, the 4 producing party will provide the requested material on watermarked
5 or colored paper bearing Bates numbers and the legend 6 “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE” unless 7 objected to as discussed below. The printed pages shall constitute 8 part of the Source Code produced by the producing party in this 9 action. At the inspecting party’s request, up to two additional sets 10 (or subsets) of printed Source Code may be requested and provided 11 by the producing party in a timely fashion.

12 e. If the producing party objects that the printed portions are not 13 “reasonably necessary” to any case preparation activity, the 14 producing party shall make such objection known to the receiving 15 party within five business days. If after meeting and conferring the 16 producing party and the receiving party cannot resolve the objection 17 (where such meet-and-confer need not take place in person), the 18 producing party shall be entitled, but not required, to seek a Court 19 resolution of whether the printed Source Code in question is 20 “reasonably necessary” to any case preparation activity. Contested 21 Source Code print outs need not be produced to the requesting party 22 until the matter is resolved by the Court.

23 f. Any printed pages of Source Code, and any other documents or things 24 reflecting Source Code that have been designated by the producing 25 party as “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE” may 26 not be copied, digitally imaged or otherwise duplicated, except in 27 limited excerpts necessary to attach as exhibits to depositions, expert 28 reports, or court filings as discussed below.

g. Any paper copies designated “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE” shall be stored or viewed only at (i) the offices of outside counsel for the receiving party, (ii) the offices of outside experts or consultants who have been approved to access Source Code; (iii) the site where any deposition is taken (iv) the Court; or (v) any intermediate location necessary to transport the information to a hearing, trial or deposition. Any such paper copies shall be maintained at all times in secure location under the direct control of counsel responsible for maintaining the security and confidentiality of the designated materials.

h. A list of names of persons who will view the Source Code will be provided to the producing party in conjunction with any written (including email) notice requesting inspection. The receiving party shall maintain a daily log of the names of persons who enter the locked room to view the Source Code and when they enter and depart. The producing party shall be entitled to have a person observe all entrances and exits from the Source Code viewing room, and to a copy of the log.

i. Unless otherwise agreed in advance by the parties in writing, following each inspection, the receiving party’s outside counsel and/or experts shall remove all notes, documents, and all other materials from the room that may contain work product and/or attorney-client privileged information. The producing party shall not be responsible for any items left in the room following each inspection session.

j. The receiving party will not copy, remove, or otherwise transfer any portion of the Source Code from the Source Code Computer including, without limitation, copying, removing, or transferring any

1 portion of the Source Code onto any other computers or peripheral 2 equipment. The receiving party will not transmit any portion of the 3 Source Code in any way from the location of the Source Code 4 inspection.

5 k. Only the following individuals shall have access to "RESTRICTED 6 CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE" materials, absent the express 7 written consent of the Producing Party or further court order:

8 i. Outside counsel of record for the parties to this action, 9 including any attorneys, paralegals, technology specialists
10 and clerical employees of their respective law firms;

11 ii. Up to three (3) outside experts or consultants per party, 12 pre-approved in accordance with Paragraphs III.A through 13 III.F and specifically identified as eligible to access Source
14 Code;

15 iii. The Court, its technical advisor (if one is appointed), the jury, 16 court personnel, and court reporters or videographers 17 recording testimony or other proceedings in this action.

18 Court reporters and/or videographers shall not retain or be 19 given copies of any portions of the Source Code. If used 20 during a deposition, the deposition record will identify the 21 exhibit by its production numbers;

22 iv. While testifying at deposition or trial in this action only: (i) 23 any current or former officer, director or employee of the 24 producing party or original source of the information; (ii) any 25 person designated by the producing party to provide 26 testimony pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of 27 Civil Procedure; and/or (iii) any person who authored, 28 previously received (other than in connection with this

1 litigation), or was directly involved in creating, modifying, or 2 editing the Source Code, as evident from its face or 3 reasonably certain in view of other testimony or evidence.
4 Persons authorized to view Source Code pursuant to this 5 sub-paragraph shall not retain or be given copies of the Source 6 Code except while so testifying.

- 7 i. The receiving party's outside counsel shall maintain a log of all 8 copies of the Source Code (received from a producing party) that are 9 delivered by the receiving party to any qualified person under 10 Paragraph C.2.g above. The log shall include the names of the 11 recipients and reviewers of copies and locations where the copies are 12 stored. Upon request by the producing party, the receiving party 13 shall provide reasonable assurances and/or descriptions of the 14 security measures employed by the receiving party and/or qualified 15 person that receives a copy of any portion of the Source Code;
- 16 m. Except as provided in this paragraph, the receiving party may not 17 create electronic images, or any other images, of the Source Code 18 from the paper copy for use on a computer (e.g., may not scan the 19 source code to a PDF, or photograph the code). The receiving party 20 may create an electronic copy or image of limited excerpts of Source 21 Code only to the extent necessary in a pleading, exhibit, expert report, 22 discovery document, deposition transcript, other Court document, or 23 any drafts of these documents ("SOURCE CODE DOCUMENTS").
24 The receiving party shall only include such excerpts as are reasonably 25 necessary for the purposes for which such part of the Source Code is 26 used. Images or copies of Source Code shall not be included in 27 correspondence between the parties (references to production 28 numbers shall be used instead) and shall be omitted from pleadings

1 and other papers except to the extent permitted herein. The 2 receiving party may create an electronic image of a selected portion 3 of the Source Code only when the electronic file containing such 4 image has been encrypted using commercially reasonable encryption 5 software including password protection. The communication and/or 6 disclosure of electronic files containing any portion of Source Code 7 shall at all times be limited to individuals who are authorized to see 8 Source Code under the provisions of this Protective Order. The 9 receiving party shall maintain a log of all electronic images and paper 10 copies of Source Code in its possession or in the possession of its 11 retained consultants, including the names of the recipients and 12 reviewers of any electronic or paper copies and the locations where 13 the copies are stored. Additionally, all electronic copies must be 14 labeled "RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE."

15 n. To the extent portions of Source Code are quoted in a document, 16 either (1) the entire document will be stamped and treated as 17 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE or (2) those 18 pages containing quoted Source Code will be separately bound, and 19 stamped and treated as RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE
20 CODE.

21 o. All copies of any portion of the Source Code in whatever form shall 22 be securely destroyed if they are no longer in use. Copies of Source 23 Code that are marked as deposition exhibits shall not be provided to 24 the Court Reporter or attached to deposition transcripts; rather, the 25 deposition record will identify the exhibit by its production numbers.

26 p. The receiving party's outside counsel may only disclose a copy of the 27 Source Code to individuals specified in Paragraph C.2.k above (e.g., 28 Source Code may not be disclosed to in-house counsel).

1 D. Use of Protected Information at Trial

2 A party shall provide a minimum of two business day's notice to the producing party in the 3 event that a party intends to use any Protected Information during trial. In addition, the parties will 4 not oppose any request by the producing party that the courtroom should be sealed, if allowed by the 5 Court, during the presentation of any testimony relating to or involving the use of any Protected
6 Information.

7 II. PROSECUTION BAR

8 A. Any person reviewing any of an opposing party's Protected Information (all of 9 which shall also be automatically designated as "Prosecution Bar Materials") shall not, for a period 10 commencing upon receipt of such information and ending three years following the conclusion of 11 this case (including any appeals) engage in any Prosecution Activity (as defined below) on behalf of 12 a party asserting a patent in this case. Furthermore, any person reviewing any of an opposing 13 party's Prosecution Bar Materials shall not, for a period commencing upon receipt of such 14 information and ending three years following the conclusion of this case (including any appeals) 15 engage in any Prosecution Activity involving claims on a method, apparatus, or system relating to 16 online video or advertisements.

17 B. Prosecution Activity shall mean any activity related to (1) the competitive business 18 decisions involving the preparation or prosecution (for any person or entity) of patent applications 19 relating to online video or advertisements or advising or counseling clients regarding the same, 20 including but not limited to providing any advice, counseling or drafting of claims for any patent 21 application, reexamination or reissue application; and/or (2) the acquisition of patents (including 22 patent applications) or the rights to any such patents or patent applications with the right to 23 sublicense, relating to online video or advertisements. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent any 24 attorney from sending non-confidential prior art to an attorney involved in patent prosecution for 25 purposes of ensuring that such prior art is submitted to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (or any 26 similar agency of a foreign government) to assist a patent applicant in complying with its duty of 27 candor. Nothing in this provision shall prohibit any attorney of record in this litigation from 28 discussing any aspect of this case that is reasonably necessary for the prosecution or defense of any

1 claim or counterclaim in this litigation with his/her client. The parties expressly agree that the 2 Prosecution Bar set forth herein shall be personal to any attorney who review Prosecution Bar 3 Materials and shall not be imputed to any other persons or attorneys at the attorneys' law firm. It is 4 expressly agreed that attorneys who work on this matter without reviewing Prosecution Bar 5 Materials shall not be restricted from engaging in Prosecution Activity on matters that fall within the 6 Prosecution Bar.

7 III. DISCLOSURE OF TECHNICAL ADVISERS

8 A. Information designated by the producing party under any category of Protected 9 Information and such copies of this information as are reasonably necessary for maintaining, 10 defending or evaluating this litigation may be furnished and disclosed to the receiving party's 11 technical advisers and their necessary support personnel.

12 B. No disclosure of Protected Information to a technical adviser or their necessary 13 support personnel shall occur until that person has signed the form attached hereto as Attachment A, 14 and a signed copy has been provided to the producing party; and to the extent there has been an 15 objection under Paragraph III.C., that objection is resolved according to the procedures set forth 16 below.

17 C. A party desiring to disclose Protected Information to a technical adviser shall also 18 give prior written notice of the intended disclosure by email to all counsel of record in the litigation 19 setting forth with particularity the bates ranges of documents the party intends to disclose, and the 20 producing party shall have ten business days after such notice is given to object in writing to the 21 disclosure. The party desiring to disclose Protected Information to a technical adviser must 22 provide the following information for each technical adviser: the bates ranges of information 23 intended to be disclosed, name, address, curriculum vitae, current employer, employment history for 24 the past ten years, a listing of cases in which the witness has testified as an expert at trial or by 25 deposition within the preceding five years, and a identification of any patents or patent applications 26 in which the technical adviser is identified as an inventor or applicant, is involved in prosecuting or 27 maintaining, or has any pecuniary interest. No Protected Information shall be disclosed to such 28 expert(s) or consultant(s) until after the expiration of the foregoing notice period and resolution of

1 any objection. No Protected Information other than bates ranges of information specifically 2 identified in the notice of intended disclosure may be disclosed. If a party seeks to disclose 3 additional bates ranges of Protected Information to a technical adviser, the party must provide new 4 notice of the intended disclosure to the producing party and the producing party shall have the 5 opportunity to object pursuant to the procedures set forth herein.

6 D. A party objecting to disclosure of Protected Information to a technical adviser shall 7 state with particularity the ground(s) of the objection and the specific bates ranges of documents that 8 are the subject of the objection. The objecting party's consent to the disclosure of Protected 9 Information to a technical adviser shall not be unreasonably withheld, and its objection must be 10 based on that party's good faith belief that disclosure of its Protected Information to the technical 11 adviser will result in specific business or economic harm to that party.

12 E. If after consideration of the objection, the party desiring to disclose the Protected 13 Information to a technical adviser refuses to withdraw the technical adviser or withdraw the bates 14 ranges that are the subject of the objection, that party shall provide notice to the objecting party.
15 Thereafter, the objecting party shall move the Court, within ten business days of receiving such 16 notice, for a ruling on its objection. A failure to file a motion within the ten business day period, 17 absent an agreement of the parties to the contrary or for an extension of such ten business day 18 period, shall operate as an approval of disclosure of the identified bates ranges of Protected 19 Information to the technical adviser. The parties agree to cooperate in good faith to shorten the 20 time frames set forth in this paragraph if necessary to abide by any discovery or briefing schedules.

21 F. The objecting party shall have the burden of showing to the Court "good cause" for 22 preventing the disclosure of its Protected Information to the technical adviser. This "good cause" 23 shall include a particularized showing that: (1) the Protected Information is confidential 24 commercial information, (2) disclosure of the Protected Information likely would result in a clearly 25 defined and serious injury to the objecting party's business, (3) the proposed technical advisor is in 26 a position to allow the Protected Information to be disclosed to or become known by the objecting 27 party's competitors, and (4) that the technical advisor's access to Protected Information may create 28

1 other confidentiality or legal risks in connection with other patent-related activities or interests tied 2 to the technical advisor.

3 G. A party who has not previously objected to disclosure of Protected Information to a 4 technical adviser or whose objection has been resolved with respect to previously produced 5 information shall not be precluded from raising an objection to a technical adviser at a later time 6 with respect to materials or information that are produced after the time for objecting to such a 7 technical adviser has expired. Any such objection shall be handled in accordance with the provisions 8 set forth above in Paragraphs III.A through III.F.

9 IV. CHALLENGES TO CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

10 A. The parties shall use reasonable care when designating documents or information as 11 Protected Information. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a receiving party from contending that 12 any documents or information designated as Protected Information have been improperly 13 designated. A receiving party may at any time request that the producing party cancel or modify 14 the Protected Information designation with respect to any document or information contained 15 therein.

16 B. A party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a designation of any 17 category of Protected Information at the time of production, and a failure to do so shall not preclude 18 a subsequent challenge thereto. Such a challenge shall be written, shall be served on counsel for 19 the producing party, and shall particularly identify the documents or information that the receiving 20 party contends should be differently designated. The parties shall use their best efforts to resolve 21 promptly and informally such disputes. If an agreement cannot be reached, the receiving party 22 shall request that the Court cancel or modify a designation. The burden of demonstrating the 23 confidential nature of any information shall at all times be and remain on the designating party.

24 C. Until a determination by the Court, the information in issue shall be treated as having 25 been properly designated and subject to the terms of this Order.

26 V. LIMITATIONS ON THE USE OF PROTECTED INFORMATION

27 A. All Protected Information shall be held in confidence by each person to whom it is 28 disclosed, shall be used only for purposes of this litigation, shall not be used for any business

1 purpose or in connection with any other legal proceeding, and shall not be disclosed to any person
2 who is not entitled to receive such information as herein provided. All produced Protected 3 Information shall be carefully maintained so as to preclude access by persons who are not entitled to 4 receive such information.

5 B. Except as may be otherwise ordered by the Court, any person may be examined as a 6 witness at depositions and trial and may testify concerning all Protected Information of which such 7 person has prior knowledge. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing:

8 1. A present director, officer, and/or employee of a producing party may be 9 examined and may testify concerning all Protected Information which has been produced by that 10 party and of which the witness has personal knowledge;

11 2. A former director, officer, agent and/or employee of a producing party may 12 be interviewed, examined and may testify concerning all Protected Information of which he or she 13 has personal knowledge, including any Protected Information that refers to matters of which the 14 witness has personal knowledge, which has been produced by that party and which pertains to the 15 period or periods of his or her employment; and 16 3. Non-parties may be examined or testify concerning any document containing 17 Protected Information of a producing party which appears on its face or from other documents or 18 testimony to have been received from or communicated to the non-party as a result of any contact or 19 relationship with the producing party or a representative of the producing party. Any person other 20 than the witness, his or her attorney(s), or any person qualified to receive Protected Information 21 under this Order shall be excluded from the portion of the examination concerning such 22 information, unless the producing party consents to persons other than qualified recipients being 23 present at the examination. If the witness is represented by an attorney who is not qualified under 24 this Order to receive such information, then prior to the examination, the attorney must provide a 25 signed statement, in the form of Attachment A hereto, that he or she will comply with the terms of 26 this Order and maintain the confidentiality of Protected Information disclosed during the course of 27 the examination. In the event that such attorney declines to sign such a statement prior to the 28

1 examination, the parties, by their attorneys, shall jointly seek a protective order from the Court
2 prohibiting the attorney from disclosing Protected Information.

3 4. All transcripts of depositions, exhibits, answers to interrogatories, pleadings, 4 briefs, and other documents submitted to the Court which have been designated as Protected 5 Information, or which contain information so designated, shall be filed under seal in a manner 6 prescribed by the Court for such filings.

7 5. Outside attorneys of record for the parties are hereby authorized to be the 8 persons who may retrieve confidential exhibits and/or other confidential matters filed with the Court 9 upon termination of this litigation without further order of this Court, and are the persons to whom 10 such confidential exhibits or other confidential matters may be returned by the Clerk of the Court, if 11 they are not so retrieved. No material or copies thereof so filed shall be released except by order of 12 the Court, to outside counsel of record, or as otherwise provided for hereunder. Notwithstanding 13 the foregoing and with regard to material designated as Restricted Confidential - Source Code, the 14 provisions of Section I.C. are controlling to the extent those provisions differ from this paragraph.

15 6. Protected Information shall not be copied or otherwise produced by a 16 receiving party, except for transmission to qualified recipients, without the written permission of the 17 producing party, or, in the alternative, by further order of the Court. Nothing herein shall, however, 18 restrict a qualified recipient from making working copies, abstracts, digests and analyses of 19 CONFIDENTIAL and CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY information for use in 20 connection with this litigation and such working copies, abstracts, digests and analyses shall be 21 deemed Protected Information under the terms of this Order. Further, nothing herein shall restrict a 22 qualified recipient from converting or translating CONFIDENTIAL and CONFIDENTIAL
23 OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY information into machine readable form for incorporation into a data 24 retrieval system used in connection with this action, provided that access to that Protected 25 Information, in whatever form stored or reproduced, shall be limited to qualified recipients.

26 7. At the request of any party, the original and all copies of any deposition 27 transcript, in whole or in part, shall be marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL 28 OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY," as appropriate, by the reporter. This request may be made orally

1 during the deposition or in writing within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the final certified transcript.
2 Deposition transcripts shall be treated by default as CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL
3 ONLY until the expiration of the time to make a confidentiality designation. Any portions so 4 designated shall thereafter be treated in accordance with the terms of this Order.

5 C. No Protected Information may leave the territorial boundaries of the United States of 6 America. Without limitation, this prohibition extends to Protected Information (including copies)
7 in physical and electronic form. The viewing of Protected Information through electronic means 8 outside the territorial limits of the United States of America is similarly prohibited.

9 Notwithstanding this prohibition, Protected Information, exclusive of material designated 10 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE, and to the extent otherwise permitted by law, 11 may be taken outside the territorial limits of the United States if it is reasonably necessary for a 12 deposition taken in a foreign country. The restrictions contained within this paragraph may be 13 amended through the consent of the producing party to the extent that such agreed to procedures 14 conform with applicable export control laws and regulations.

15 VI. NON-PARTY USE OF THIS PROTECTIVE ORDER

16 A. A nonparty producing information or material voluntarily or pursuant to a subpoena 17 or a court order may designate such material or information as Protected Information pursuant to the 18 terms of this Protective Order.

19 B. A nonparty's use of this Protective Order to protect its Protected Information does 20 not entitle that nonparty access to the Protected Information produced by any party in this case.

21 VII. RIGHT TO ASSERT OTHER OBJECTIONS

22 By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no party waives any right it otherwise 23 would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not 24 addressed in this Protective Order. Similarly, no party waives any right to object on any ground to 25 the use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order. Further, nothing in this 26 Protective Order shall require production of information that a party contends is protected from 27 disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work product immunity or other privilege, doctrine, 28 right, or immunity. If information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, work product

1 immunity, or other privilege, doctrine, right, or immunity is nevertheless inadvertently or 2 unintentionally produced, such production shall in no way prejudice or otherwise constitute a 3 waiver or estoppel as to any such privilege, doctrine, right or immunity. Any party that 4 inadvertently produces materials protected the attorney-client privilege, work product privilege, or 5 other privilege, doctrine, right, or immunity may obtain the return of those materials by promptly 6 notifying the recipient(s) and providing a privilege log for the inadvertently produced materials.
7 The recipient(s) shall gather and return all copies of the privileged material to the producing party, 8 except for any pages containing privileged markings by the recipient, which pages shall instead be 9 destroyed and certified as such by the recipient to the producing party. Notwithstanding this 10 provision, outside litigation counsel of record are not required to delete information that may reside 11 on their respective firm's electronic back-up systems that are over-written in the normal course of 12 business.

13 VIII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14 A. Any of the notice requirements herein may be waived, in whole or in part, but only in 15 writing signed by the attorney-in-charge for the party against whom such waiver will be effective.

16 B. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents or things containing Protected 17 Information which are not designated as one or more of the three categories of Protected 18 Information at the time of production shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of a claim for 19 confidential treatment. With respect to documents, the producing party shall immediately upon 20 discovery notify the other parties of the error in writing and provide replacement pages bearing the 21 appropriate confidentiality legend. In the event of any disclosure of Protected Information other 22 than in a manner authorized by this Protective Order, including any unintentional or inadvertent 23 disclosure, counsel for the party responsible for the disclosure shall immediately notify opposing 24 counsel of all of the pertinent facts, and make every effort to further prevent unauthorized disclosure 25 including, retrieving all copies of the Protected Information from the recipient(s) thereof, and 26 securing the agreement of the recipients not to further disseminate the Protected Information in any 27 form. Compliance with the foregoing shall not prevent the producing party from seeking further 28 relief from the Court.

1 C. Within sixty days after the entry of a final non-appealable judgment or order, or the 2 complete settlement of all claims asserted against all parties in this action, each party shall, at the 3 option of the producing party, either return or destroy all physical objects and documents which 4 embody Protected Information it has received, and shall destroy in whatever form stored or 5 reproduced, all physical objects and documents, including but not limited to, correspondence, 6 memoranda, notes and other work product materials, which contain or refer to any category of 7 Protected Information. All Protected Information, not embodied in physical objects and 8 documents shall remain subject to this Order. In the event that a party is dismissed before the entry 9 of a final non-appealable judgment or order, this same procedure shall apply to any Protected 10 Information received from or produced to the dismissed party. Notwithstanding this provision, 11 outside litigation counsel of record are not required to delete information that may reside on their 12 respective firm's electronic back-up systems that are over-written in the normal course of business.
13 Notwithstanding the foregoing, outside counsel shall be entitled to maintain two (2) copies of all 14 pleadings, motions and trial briefs (including all supporting and opposing papers and exhibits 15 thereto), written discovery requests and responses (and exhibits thereto), deposition transcripts (and 16 exhibits thereto), trial transcripts, and exhibits offered or introduced into evidence at any hearing or 17 trial, and their attorney work product which refers or is related to any CONFIDENTIAL and 18 CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY information for archival purposes only. If a 19 party opts to destroy CONFIDENTIAL or CONFIDENTIAL OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY 20 information, the party must provide a Certificate of Destruction to the producing party.

21 D. If at any time documents containing Protected Information are subpoenaed by any 22 court, arbitral, administrative or legislative body, or are otherwise requested in discovery, the person 23 to whom the subpoena or other request is directed shall immediately give written notice thereof to 24 every party who has produced such documents and to its counsel and shall provide each such party 25 with an opportunity to object to the production of such documents. If a producing party does not 26 take steps to prevent disclosure of such documents within ten business days of the date written 27 notice is given, the party to whom the referenced subpoena is directed may produce such documents 28

1 in response thereto, but shall take all reasonable measures to have such documents treated in 2 accordance with terms of this Protective Order.

3 E. Testifying experts shall not be subject to discovery of any draft of their reports or 4 declarations in this case and such draft reports or declarations, notes, outlines, or any other writings 5 leading up to an issued report(s) or declarations in this litigation are exempt from discovery. In 6 addition, all communications between counsel for a party and that party's testifying expert, and all 7 materials generated by a testifying expert with respect to that person's work, are exempt from 8 discovery unless they relate to the expert's compensation or identify facts, data or assumptions 9 relied upon by the expert in forming any opinions in this litigation and such information is not 10 already disclosed in the expert's report.

11 F. No party shall be required to identify on their respective privilege log any document 12 or communication dated on or after the filing of the lawsuit, which absent this provision, the party 13 would have been obligated to so identify on said privilege log. The parties shall exchange their 14 respective privilege document logs at a time to be agreed upon by the parties following the 15 production of documents.

16 G. This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of any party to apply to the Court 17 at any time for additional protection, or to relax or rescind the restrictions of this Order, when 18 convenience or necessity requires. Furthermore, without application to this Court, any party that 19 is a beneficiary of the protections of this Order may enter a written agreement releasing any other 20 party hereto from one or more requirements of this Order even if the conduct subject to the release 21 would otherwise violate the terms herein.

22 H. The United States District Court for the Northern District of California is responsible 23 for the interpretation and enforcement of this Agreed Protective Order. After termination of this 24 litigation, the provisions of this Agreed Protective Order shall continue to be binding except with 25 respect to those documents and information that become a matter of public record. This Court 26 retains and shall have continuing jurisdiction over the parties and recipients of the Protected 27 Information for enforcement of the provision of this Agreed Protective Order following termination 28 of this litigation. All disputes concerning Protected Information produced under the protection of

1 this Agreed Protective Order shall be resolved by the United States District Court for the Northern 2 District of California.

3 I. Nothing in this Protective Order shall preclude or impede outside litigation counsel 4 of record's ability to communicate with or advise their client in connection with this litigation only 5 based on such counsel's review and evaluation of Protected Information, provided however, that 6 such communications or advice shall not disclose or reveal the substance or content of any Protected 7 Information other than as permitted under this Protective Order.

8 J. Each of the parties agrees to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order as of the 9 date counsel for such party executes this Protective Order, even if prior to entry of this order by the 10 Court.
