conclusion and the legal authority therefor (quoting the key language of said authority). The overall length of the submission must be TWENTY-FIVE PAGES OR LESS.

By JULY 13 AT NOON, the opposing side must file and serve by email a response. The response must state, separately as to each proposed finding, whether the responding party agrees with the proposed finding and if not in full agreement, then the full extent to which, considering the duty of good faith and candor, the responding party admits the proposed finding. To the extent that the responding side objects in any respect to the proposed finding, it must state (i) the extent to which the opposition is based on a failure of the record cites to support the proposal (explaining why they do not support it) and (ii) the extent to which the objection is based on contrary evidence (citing the contrary evidence) or lack of credibility (citing relevant evidence). Example:

1. Agree that the light was red but the light had just changed a split second before.

Mack RT 42:17-18

The submission shall similarly state the extent to which the responding party agrees with each conclusion of law proposed by the other side. If there is any disagreement, the responding side must state (i) the extent to which the disagreement is based on a failure of the supporting findings, (ii) the extent to which the disagreement is based on a failure of the cited authorities to support the conclusion, and (iii) the extent to which contrary authorities contradict the legal basis for the proposed conclusion.

The responding submission should reproduce each original finding or conclusion and then, immediately after each, supply the responsive information. It may not exceed twice the overall number of pages used by the submission to which it responds.

Please do not ask for an extension.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
