 27 ¹ Thomas S. Winkowski, Principal Deputy Assistant Director, ICE, is substituted under 28 Fed. R. Civ. P. 25(d) for former Acting Director, John Sandweg, who was named as a defendant in this action in his official capacity but resigned from this position effective February 21, 2014.
 STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER
 No. 3:13-cv-05878-EMC

1 PURPOSES & LIMITATIONS

2 1.1 The parties anticipate that during informal discovery in this action they will 3 exchange documents, items, material, and other information that contain sensitive,
4 confidential, proprietary, and/or private information that merits special protection from 5 public disclosure. This Stipulated Protective Order does not govern any future formal 6 discovery related to the merits of this case and applies only to (a) class member 7 information provided to facilitate Class Counsel's notice of class certification and access to 8 class members and (b) informal settlement discussions. Accordingly, the parties hereby 9 stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order for 10 purposes of informal discovery in support of settlement discussions and identification of 11 class members only. See ECF No. 31 (regarding notice to class); ECF No. 35 (ordering 12 necessary informal discovery prior to settlement conference). Such sensitive and 13 confidential information may include (a) security arrangements, security plans, practices,
14 policies, procedures, protocols or guidelines, security audits or reviews, building layouts, 15 documents reflecting architectural plans, blueprints or schematics whose efficacy may be 16 undermined by disclosure to the public, including but not limited to floor plans or plans
17 specific to building security features, enhancements or vulnerabilities; (b) information
18 subject to the Privacy Act (codified at 5 U.S.C § 552a) or the official information privilege
19 that is protected from disclosure, in order to comply with the law; and (c) material 20 containing private and confidential third-party information protected by the right to 21 privacy guaranteed in the Federal Constitution and the First Amendment, in order to 22 protect the privacy interest of those third-parties.
23
25
26
27
28

1 1.2 The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections
2 on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public 3 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to 4 confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further
5 acknowledge, as set forth in section 12, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does
6 not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth
7 the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party
8 seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.

11 1.3 Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b)(11), this Stipulated Protective Order
12 authorizes Defendants to produce to counsel for Plaintiffs and the Court discoverable
13 information pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) sought by Plaintiffs during informal discovery
14 prior to settlement discussions, as well as identifying information regarding class 15 members, containing unredacted, identifying information of third-parties, without 16 obtaining prior written consent of third parties whose names, addresses, birth dates, and 17 other identifying information may be present in such documents and without requiring 18 officials of the United States to pre-screen each document for objections under Federal Rule
19 of Civil Procedure 26(c) or the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, and without presenting those 20 objections to this Court for a decision regarding disclosure. To the extent the relevant 21 statute or regulation allows the disclosure of information pursuant to a court order, this 22 Order constitutes such a court order and authorizes disclosure of that information.
23

25
26 1.4 The Parties agree that the terms of this Protective Order will govern the 27 production of information in response to Plaintiffs' informal discovery requests needed for 28 all sides to evaluate the case for settlement purposes as well as the production of

1 identifying information regarding class members for purposes of providing notice of class
2 certification and facilitating Class Counsel's access to class members to the extent that such 3 production contains "Confidential Information" as defined in section 2 and designated 4 according to section 5. The terms of this Order shall also govern the safeguarding of such 5 information by all individuals referenced in sections 7 and 12.

7 2. DEFINITIONS

8 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 9 information or items under this Order.
10

11 2.2 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: any information (regardless of how 12 it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that are not publicly available and 13 qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and/or the Privacy Act, 5
14 U.S.C. § 552a including: (a) the names, alien numbers, and detention facilities of the 15 particular individual(s) to whom the information relates and (b) any personally identifying 16 information related to third parties other than the individual whose information is being 17 sought, such as, but not limited to, information regarding familial relatives of individuals.
18

19 2.3. Consulting Counsel: attorneys who are not Counsel of Record, but are (1) 20 affiliated with or employed by a law firm, agency, or organization that has appeared on 21 behalf of a Party and (2) consulted by a Party or by Counsel of Record for the purpose of 22 litigating this action.
23

24 2.4 Counsel of Record: Counsel (as well as their support staff) who appear or 25 have appeared in this action on behalf of a Party in this action.
26

27 2.5 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items
28 that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "CONFIDENTIAL."

1 2.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the 2 medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other 3 things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in 4 disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

6 2.7 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
7 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an 8 expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

10 2.8 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 11 other legal entity who is not named as a Party to this action.

12 2.9 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors,
13 employees, consultants, retained experts, and counsel (including their support staffs).
14

15 2.10 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery
16 Material in this action.

17 2.11 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated
18 as "CONFIDENTIAL."
19

20 2.12 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from 21 a Producing Party.

22 3. SCOPE

23 3.1 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only
24 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (a) any information copied or extracted
25 from Protected Material; (b) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected
26 Material; and (c) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel
27 that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this 28

1 Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in 2 the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the 3 public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not 4 involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through 5 trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the 6 disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who 7 obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the 8 Designating Party.

11 3.2 Aggregate information that does not permit the identification of the 12 particular individuals to whom the information relates is not protected even if it is derived
13 from source documents that are designated "Confidential."
14

15 4. DURATION

16 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed
17 by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or 18 a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) 19 dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final 20 judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, 21 trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or 22 applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.
23

24 5. DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

25
26 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each
27 Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order 28 must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the

1 appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection only those 2 parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so 3 that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which 4 protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

6 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that 7 are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., 8 to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose 9 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to 10 sanctions.
11

12 If it comes to a Designating Party’s attention that information or items that it
13 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the Designating Party must 14 promptly notify – within ten (10) business days – all other Parties that it is withdrawing 15 the mistaken designation.
16

17 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 18 Order or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies 19 for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is 20 disclosed or produced.
21

22 5.3 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

23 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 24 documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), 25 that the Producing Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains 26 protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 27 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by 28

1 making appropriate markings in the margins). “Confidential Information” set forth in a
2 response to an interrogatory may be so designated by including the word “Confidential” in 3 the response.

5 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for 6 inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 7 indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and 8 before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed 9 “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied
10 and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof,
11 qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, 12 the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” legend to each page that contains 13 Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for
14 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by 15 making appropriate markings in the margins).
16

18 (b) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for 19 any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior
20 of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend
21 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant
22 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 23 portion(s).
24

26 5.4 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure
27 to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating
28 Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely

1 correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure
2 that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

3 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

5 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 6 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's 7 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness,
8 unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party
9 does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount
10 a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

11
12 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution 13 process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the 14 basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the 15 written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance 16 with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve 17 each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to 18 voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within fourteen (14)
19 business days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must 20 explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must 21 give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider 22 the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the 23 chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge 24 process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the 25
26
27
28

1 Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely
2 manner.

3 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
4 intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality
5 under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 6 twenty (20) business days of the initial notice of challenge or within fourteen (14) business
7 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute,
8 whichever is later. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration 9 affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by 10 paragraph 6.2. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a motion, including the 11 required declaration, within the time allotted by this paragraph shall automatically waive 12 the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the 13 Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if 14 there is good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition
15 transcript or any portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be 16 accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the 17 meet and confer requirements imposed by the paragraph 6.2.

18 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 19 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges and those challenges made for an improper 20 purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties)
21 may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived 22 the confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as 23 described in this paragraph (paragraph 6.3), all parties shall continue to afford the material

1 in question the level of protection due under this Order for Confidential Information until 2 the Court rules on the challenge.

3 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

5 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 6 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only 7 for attempting to settle this litigation and identifying class members for the purpose of 8 providing notice to class members of class certification and facilitating Class Counsel's
9 access to class members. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories
10 of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been 11 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 12.3 below (re:
12 Return of Confidential Information).

14 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location 15 and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under 16 this Order.

17
18 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise
19 ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, information
20 designated as "Confidential," including the portion of any document containing 21 "Confidential" information, may be disclosed by a Receiving Party only to the following 22 persons and only to the extent necessary to litigate this action:

23
24 (a) Counsel of Record for Plaintiffs, Counsel of Record for Defendants, 25 Consulting Counsel, and any support staff of such counsel assisting in this action with an 26 appropriate need to know;
27
28

1 (b) Experts of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably
2 necessary for this litigation, including evaluation of settlement positions, subject to 3 paragraph 7.3;

4 (c) Any other person mutually authorized by the Parties to examine such 5 information, subject to paragraph 7.3; and/or

6 (d) The Court and its personnel, including court reporters.

8 All persons listed in paragraph 7.2(a) to whom "Confidential" information is 9 disclosed are hereby prohibited from disclosing to, or otherwise discussing with, any 10 person other than those listed in paragraph 7.2(b)-(d), any information designated as 11 "Confidential Information," except as provided in this Stipulated Protective Order.

12
13 7.3 Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound (Exhibit A). All persons listed
14 in paragraphs 7(b) and (c) to whom "Confidential Information" is disclosed shall first be 15 required to read the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and sign a copy of the 16 Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order, attached hereto as 17 Exhibit A. Each signed Acknowledgment form shall be maintained by counsel for the 18 Plaintiffs or counsel for the Defendants as appropriate, depending on the Party seeking to 19 disclose Confidential information.
20

21
22 7.4 Use of "Confidential" Information in Court Filings.

23 Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured
24 after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record
25 any "Confidential" Information. In the event a Party wishes to use any "Confidential"
26 Information produced under this Stipulated Protective Order in a court filing, such filings
27 shall either be: (a) filed in accordance with Civil Local Rule 79-5 or (b) redacted to 28

1 preclude any Confidential Information from entering into the public record. Should a Party
2 elect to redact any and all Confidential Information from a pleading rather than file that
3 pleading in accordance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, the filing Party will serve such redacted
4 pleading on the non-filing Party via e-mail rather than via CM/ECF, allowing the non-filing
5 Party three (3) business days to raise any objections concerning the release of Confidential
6 Information, before filing such redacted pleading with the Court via CM/ECF. This 7 provision does not apply to the Parties' submission of "Confidential" Information to the 8 Magistrate Judge assigned to proceed over settlement conferences in this case, provided 9 those submissions are not filed in the public record.
10
11

12 7.5 Use of "Confidential" Information at Hearings.

13 The parties do not anticipate using at any hearing any "Confidential" information 14 disclosed during informal discovery prior to settlement discussions or for the purpose of 15 identifying class members to facilitate notice of class certification and Class Counsel's
16 access to class members. Should such need arise, the Parties will follow the instructions
17 for use of "Confidential" information in Court Filings as detailed in paragraph 7.4.
18

19 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
20 LITIGATION

21 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 22 compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 23 "CONFIDENTIAL," that Party must:
24

25 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall 26 include a copy of the subpoena or court order;
27
28

1 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order
2 to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or 3 order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this 4 Stipulated Protective Order; and

6 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be 7 pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

8 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the 9 subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as 10 "CONFIDENTIAL" before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order
11 issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party's permission. The Designating 12 Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its 13 confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing 14 or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another 15 court.
16
17

18 9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS
19 LITIGATION

20 9.1 The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-21 Party in this action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL." Such information produced by 22 Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief
23 provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a 24 Non-Party from seeking additional protections.
25

26 9.2 The Parties agree that any discovery sought from Non-Parties who owe a
27 duty of confidentiality to one or more Parties can be disclosed without violating that duty
28

1 of confidentiality if such discovery would otherwise be covered by this Protective Order
2 and disclosure is made in accordance with this Protective Order. Because this Protective
3 Order is sufficient to protect such confidential information, a duty of confidentiality to one
4 of the Parties shall not be a basis for any Non-Party to withhold covered records or 5 information sought through third-party discovery in this litigation.

7 9.3 In the event that a Party is required by a valid discovery request to produce a
8 Non-Party's confidential information which in that Party's possession, and the Party is 9 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential
10 information, then the Party shall:
11

12 (a) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 13 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with 14 a Non-Party;
15

16 (b) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated
17 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 18 specific description of the information requested; and 19

20 (c) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-21 Party.
22

23 9.4 If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this Court
24 within fourteen (14) business days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, 25 the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to 26 the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party 27 shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 28

1 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the Court.² Absent
2 a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking
3 protection in this court of its Protected Material.

5 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

6 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
7 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 8 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the 9 Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosure(s), (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all 10 unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person(s) to whom 11 unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such 12 person(s) execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached
13 hereto as Exhibit A within ten (10) business days of learning of the unauthorized 14 disclosure.
15
16

17 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
18 MATERIAL

19 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently 20 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of 21 the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B).
22
24
25
26

27 ² The purpose of this provision is to alert the interested parties to the existence of 28 confidentiality rights of a Non-Party and to afford the Non-Party an opportunity to protect its confidentiality interests in this Court.

1 12. MAINTAINING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

2 The Parties shall maintain “Confidential Information” as follows:

3 12.1 Counsel of Record and anyone to whom “Confidential Information” has been 4 disclosed in accordance with section 7.2 shall maintain all remaining “Confidential”
5 Information pursuant to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, subject to further 6 order by this Court. Within sixty (60) days after the final disposition of this action – as 7 defined by section 4, including any and all appeals – all discovery and copies thereof in the 8 possession of Plaintiffs and anyone to whom “Confidential Information” has been disclosed
9 in accordance with section 7.2 shall be returned to the Defendants or destroyed, except as 10 this Court may otherwise order, in accordance with section 12.3, but excluding the archival 11 copies for counsel’s records contemplated by paragraph 12.2.

12 12.2 Notwithstanding paragraphs 12.1 and 12.3, counsel of record for Plaintiffs
13 and counsel of record for Defendants may each maintain one (1) complete set of discovery 14 for their records, provided that such counsel maintain the confidential nature of the 15 discovery. Also notwithstanding paragraphs 12.1 and 12.3, Counsel are entitled to retain 16 an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts,
17 legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney 18 work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain 19 Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material
20 remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (Duration).

21 12.3 With the exception of the archival copies contemplated by paragraph 12.2, 22 within sixty (60) days after the final disposition of this action, including any appeals and 23 any ongoing and/or permanent injunctions and as defined in section 4, each Receiving 24

1 Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
2 As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts,
3 compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the 8 (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations,

9 summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material.
