Plaintiffs,

v.

VECTOR MARKETING CORPORATION and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. 14-CV-00264-EMC

AMENDED STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to

1 confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as 2 set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file 3 confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be 4 followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to 5 file material under seal.

6 2. DEFINITIONS

7 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 8 information or items under this Order.

9 2.2 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is 10 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule 11 of Civil Procedure 26(c).

12 2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record, Other Outside Counsel, 13 and House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

14 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that 15 it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

16 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the 17 medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, 18 testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or 19 responses to discovery in this matter.

20 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent 21 to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as 22 a consultant in this action.

23 2.7 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House 24 Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

25 2.8 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other 26 legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

27 2.9 Other Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action 28 but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have neither appeared in this

1 action on behalf of that party nor are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of 2 that party.

3 2.10 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this 4 action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this 5 action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of 6 that party.

7 2.11 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 8 consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record and Other Outside Counsel (and 9 their support staffs).

10 2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery 11 Material in this action.

12 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services 13 (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and 14 organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and 15 subcontractors.

16 2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 17 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

18 2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 19 Producing Party.

20 3. SCOPE

21 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material 22 (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2)
23 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, 24 conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.
25 However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following 26 information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a 27 Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as 28 a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the

1 public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party 2 prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who 3 obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating 4 Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

5 4. DURATION

6 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by 7 this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court
8 order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all 9 claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after 10 the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this 11 action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time 12 pursuant to applicable law.

13 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

14 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party
15 or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care 16 to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards.
17 The Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, 18 items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, 19 documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 20 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

21 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 22 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 23 unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary 24 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions. If it comes to 25 a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not 26 qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is 27 withdrawing the mistaken designation.

28 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order

1 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered,
2 Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so 3 designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

4 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

5 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 6 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing 7 Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains protected material. If only 8 a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also 9 must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 10 margins).

11 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need 12 not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it 13 would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the 14 material made available for inspection shall be deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting 15 Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must 16 determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, 17 before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the 18 “CONFIDENTIAL” legend to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or 19 portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 20 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

21 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 22 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other 23 proceeding, all protected testimony.

24 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other 25 tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the 26 container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend 27 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 28 the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

1           5.3    Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 2 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party's 3 right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a 4 designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is 5 treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6    6.    CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

7           6.1    Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 8 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality 9 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 10 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to 11 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 12 original designation is disclosed.

13          6.2    Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution 14 process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis 15 for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written 16 notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this 17 specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in 18 good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other 19 forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In 20 conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality 21 designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the 22 designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, 23 to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next 24 stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or 25 establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in 26 a timely manner.

27          6.3    Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 28 intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under

1 Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 21 days 2 of the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and 3 confer process will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be 4 accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet 5 and confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to 6 make such a motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) 7 shall automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In 8 addition, the Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at 9 any time if there is good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a 10 deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must 11 be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the 12 meet and confer requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

13 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating 14 Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 15 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to 16 sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to 17 file a motion to retain confidentiality as described above, all parties shall continue to afford the 18 material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's 19 designation until the court rules on the challenge.

20 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

21 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed 22 or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for 23 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be 24 disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order.
25 When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of 26 section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

27 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and 28 in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

1           7.2    Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise 2 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may 3 disclose any information or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

4           (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as 5 employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 6 information for this litigation;

7           (b) the Receiving Party’s Other Outside Counsel, as well as employees of said Other 8 Outside Counsel, to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

9           (c) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving 10 Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

11           (d) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 12 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and 13 Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

14           (e) the court and its personnel;

15           (f) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, 16 and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

17           (g) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably 18 necessary. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal 19 Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to 20 anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and 21           (h) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or 22 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

23   8.    PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
24        LITIGATION

25        If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels 26 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that 27 Party must:

28        (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a

1 copy of the subpoena or court order;

2 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in 3 the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to 4 this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; 5 and

6 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 7 Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

8 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the 9 subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as 10 “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order 11 issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party 12 shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material, 13 and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving 14 Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

15 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS 16 LITIGATION

17 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in 18 this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by Non-Parties in 19 connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order.
20 Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking 21 additional protections.

22 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a 23 Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement 24 with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

25 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some 26 or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

27 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective 28 Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of

1 the information requested; and

2 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

3 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 4 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce
5 the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party 6 timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its 7 possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a 8 determination by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the 9 burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

10 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

11 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected 12 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective 13 Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the 14 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the 15 Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were 16 made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the 17 "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

18 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
19 MATERIAL

20 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently 21 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 22 Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 23 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery 24 order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of 25 Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a 26 communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product 27 protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order 28 submitted to the court.

1     12.     MISCELLANEOUS

2             12.1     Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to 3 seek its modification by the court in the future.

4             12.2     Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective 5 Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 6 information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, 7 no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material 8 covered by this Protective Order.

9             12.3     Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party 10 or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in 11 the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 12 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be 13 filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected 14 Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a 15 request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade 16 secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file 17 Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) is denied by the court, then 18 the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 19 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the court.

20     13.     FINAL DISPOSITION

21             Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each 22 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such 23 material. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, 24 compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected 25 Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must 26 submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the 27 Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all 28 the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has

1 not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or 2 capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to 3 retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, 4 legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work
5 product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected 6 Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to 7 this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).
