The parties' Statement indicates that upon Plaintiff's review of the Administrative Record there may be a dispute as to what fact discovery, if any, is appropriate. If after good faith meet and confer efforts the parties are unable to agree, they should bring the matter to the Court's attention via a joint discovery letter as set forth in the Court's Civil Standing Order. Further, if at any time a party believes that referral of the case to a magistrate judge for settlement might be productive, the party should so advise the Court by letter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
