

1
2
3
4 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
5 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

6 GREENFIELD FRESH, INC.,

7 Plaintiff,

8 v.

9 BERTI-PRODUCE-OAKLAND, INC., et
10 al.,

11 Defendants.

Case No. 14-cv-1096-JSC

ORDER RE: SEVERANCE OF PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS AGAINST BERTI-PRODUCE, INC. AND CONTINUANCE OF CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

12 Plaintiff Greenfield Fresh, Inc. and Defendants Mah and Chow have reached a full 13 settlement of their claims. (Dkt. No. 32.) All of these parties have also consented to the 14 jurisdiction of a magistrate judge. (Dkt. Nos. 10, 11, 35.) Although purportedly served with 15 summons and the complaint, Defendant Berti-Produce, Inc. has not appeared in the action. Thus,
16 Berti-Produce, Inc. has not consented to the jurisdiction of a magistrate judge. Accordingly, to 17 provide the Court with jurisdiction to sign the stipulation of dismissal between Plaintiff and
18 Defendants Mah and Chow, the Court ordered all appearing parties to advise the Court by 19 Tuesday, September 23, 2014 whether they agreed to the severance into a separate action of 20 Defendant Berti-Produce, Inc. (Dkt. No. 33.) As no party objected to the severance, Plaintiff's
21 claims against Berti-Produce, Inc. are severed from Plaintiff's claims against Mah and Chow. The 22 Court will forthwith sign the stipulation of dismissal of the claims against Defendants Mah and 23 Chow.

24 The Case Management Conference scheduled for September 25, 2014 is continued to
25 November 20, 2014 at 1:30 p.m. to give Plaintiff the opportunity to move for entry of default
26 judgment of Berti-Produce.

27 IT IS SO ORDERED
28

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

JACQUELINE SCOTT CORLEY
United States Magistrate Judge