Case No. 14-cv-04478-EDL

ORDER CONTINUING CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

12 On October 6, 2014, Plaintiff O2Micro, a California company, filed this complaint for 13 copyright infringement, computer fraud and abuse, breach of contract, conversion, trespass, and 14 related claims brought against two former employees and their subsequent employer for theft of 15 trade secret source code. All of the Defendants are residents of China. For approximately one
16 year, Plaintiff has been attempting to serve the Defendants. Plaintiff has represented to the Court
17 on multiple occasions that service of process would be completed shortly, and this Court has 18 continued the initial case management accordingly. In Plaintiff's most recent case management
19 statement, Plaintiff states that service of process should be completed by "the middle of January."
20 The Court is concerned about the continued delays in service of process, but will allow an 21 additional continuance of the case management conference, until February 9, 2016 at 10:00 a.m.
