

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

TOP AGENT NETWORK, INC.,
Plaintiff,
v.
ZILLOW, INC.,
Defendant.

Case No. 14-cv-04769-RS (DMR)

ORDER DENYING DISCOVERY LETTER

Re: Dkt. No. 39

Before the court is a joint discovery letter filed by Plaintiff Top Agent Network, Inc. and Defendant Zillow, Inc. [Docket No. 39.] Plaintiff’s Complaint brings thirteen causes of action against Zillow, including a claim for misappropriation of trade secrets. In the letter, Defendant moves for a protective order preventing Plaintiff from obtaining any discovery from Defendant until Plaintiff identifies its trade secrets with enough particularity to meet the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure § 2019.210.

Judge Seeborg has issued an order dismissing almost all of Plaintiff’s claims with leave to amend, including Plaintiff’s claim for misappropriation of trade secrets claim. [Docket No. 41.] Because the dispute at issue in the letter is relevant only to a claim that has been dismissed, the discovery letter is denied as moot.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 13, 2015

Donna M. Ryu
United States Magistrate Judge