 22 a period of two weeks to February 10, 2015, and extend all pre-conference deadlines set forth in

2. The initial case management conference is presently set for January 27, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. Counsel for the defendant has a mediation scheduled for January 27, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. in Oakland in the matter of Pak v. Vigo Industries, et al., Northern District of California case number C14-02033 MEJ. The mediation date in the Pak action was set on October 9, 2014, before the complaint in this action was filed. Plaintiff's counsel has a trial set for the week of February 2, 2015 and prefers that the conference be reset on February 10, 2015 to avoid any conflict with that trial.

3. Due to the scheduling conflict between the case management conference in this action and the mediation in the Pak action, the parties respectfully request that the court continue the case management conference in this matter to February 10, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. The parties further request that all pre-conference deadlines set forth in the Court's October 27, 2014 scheduling order each be extended for a period of two weeks as well.
