IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

REMBRANDT PATENT
INNOVATIONS, LLC, and REMBRANDT SECURE COMPUTING,
L.P.,

No. C 14-05094 WHA (lead case)
No. C 14-05093 WHA

Plaintiffs,

v.

APPLE INC,

Defendant.

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART
APPLE'S SEALING MOTION

Apple seeks to file under seal portions of the exhibits to its motion to compel because portions of those exhibits have been designated “Restricted — Attorney’s Eyes Only” by Rembrandt pursuant to the protective order in this action (Dkt. No. 141). Rembrandt has filed a supporting declaration averring that certain information in the documents sought to be redacted reflects confidential business information, such as the personal addresses of the inventors of the patents-in-suit, deposition testimony describing Rembrandt’s business model, and the amounts of royalty payments negotiated in licenses for the patents-in-suit (Dkt. No. 143). The exhibits to the supporting declaration are new versions of the exhibits that Apple seeks to redact with only the sensitive information redacted, rather than the entire documents. Good cause shown, Apple’s sealing motion is GRANTED as to the information redacted in the exhibits to Rembrandt’s supporting declaration and otherwise DENIED.
