| 16 | The district court has referred a discovery letter to the undersigned. (See ECF No. 65.) The court | |
| 17 | will review it and evaluate whether further proceedings are necessary, including any further briefing | |
| 18 | or argument. Going forward, the parties must comply with the undersigned's standing order | |
| 19 | (attached). The dispute procedures in it require, among other things, that if a meet-and-confer by | |
| 20 | other means does not resolve the parties' dispute, lead counsel for the parties must meet and confer | |
| 21 | in person (if counsel are local) and then submit a joint-letter brief with information about any | |
| 22 | unresolved disputes. If counsel cannot navigate the filing of a joint letter brief, they may schedule a | |
| 23 | short case management conference call through courtroom deputy Lashanda Scott. The letter brief | |
| 24 | must be filed under the Civil Events category of "Motions and Related Filings > Motions – General | |
| 25 | > Discovery Letter Brief." After reviewing the joint letter brief, the court will evaluate whether | |
| 26 | future proceedings are necessary, including any further briefing or argument. | |
