Case No.: 14-80004-RS (KAW)

ORDER REGARDING FEBRUARY 24, 2014
JOINT LETTER

12
13 On January 6, 2014, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, as receiver of Washington
14 Mutual Bank, ("FDIC-R") filed a motion to quash subpoenas issued by the defendants
15 ("Subpoenas"). The Clerk opened a miscellaneous action, and the matter was referred to the 16 undersigned.

17 On January 8, 2014, the court ordered the parties to meet and confer regarding the 18 Subpoenas. (Jan. 8, 2014 Order, Dkt. No. 3.) In a February 24, 2014 joint letter, the parties state 19 that they have met and conferred and successfully "resolved all issues between them relating to 20 the production of documents in response to the Subpoenas." (Feb. 24, 2014 Joint Ltr., Dkt. No.
21 4.) The parties also request that the court issue an order "indicating that no further production of 22 documents in response to the Subpoenas is required and that the FDIC-R's motion to quash is 23 withdrawn with prejudice, with each side to bear its own attorneys' fees and costs." (Id.)

Pursuant to that request, the court orders that no further production of documents in response to the Subpoenas is required, the FDIC-R's motion to quash is deemed withdrawn with prejudice, and each side is to bear its own attorneys' fees and costs.

The Clerk shall close this miscellaneous action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
