NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIALOOP AI LABS INC, Plaintiff,

v.

ANNA GATTI, et al.,
Defendants.Case No. 15-cv-00798-HSG (DMR)ORDER ON DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE A MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Re: Dkt. No. 727

The court has received Defendant Almax USA, Inc.'s ("Almax") motion for leave to file a motion for reconsideration of the court's June 3, 2016 order on Almax's motions regarding expert discovery, Plaintiff Loop AI Labs Inc.'s opposition thereto, and Almax's reply. [Docket Nos. 727, 744, 757.]

On May 27, 2016, Almax filed an administrative motion for leave to file a unilateral letter brief regarding the depositions of Plaintiff's expert witnesses, seeking an order 1) compelling the depositions of Plaintiff's expert witnesses; or 2) allowing the expert depositions to take place after the June 7, 2016 expert discovery cutoff so that it could re-serve the deposition subpoenas. [Docket No. 714.] In its response, Plaintiff indicated that its experts would voluntarily appear for their depositions on June 1 and 2, 2016 as scheduled. [Docket No. 716.] Therefore, on June 3, 2016, the court denied Almax's motion for leave to file a unilateral letter brief as moot in light of Plaintiff's representation. [Docket No. 719.] In other words, the court denied Almax's motion because it appeared that the parties had reached an agreement about the depositions. Based on the briefing related to Almax's motion for leave to file a motion for reconsideration, it is clear that the parties have not reached an agreement about Plaintiff's experts' depositions. Thus, Almax's original administrative motion for leave to file a unilateral letter brief regarding the depositions of Plaintiff's expert witnesses is not moot. The administrative motion is granted. Almawave shall file a two-page unilateral letter brief regarding the depositions by no later than June 24, 2016. Plaintiff's opposition shall not exceed two pages and shall be filed by no later than June 29, 2016. Almawave's motion for leave to file a motion for reconsideration is denied as moot.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
