UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

STEVE P. PACHECO,
Plaintiff,
v.
LAWRENCE GAMBOA, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 15-cv-00987-JCS (PR)

ORDER OF SERVICE;
ORDER DIRECTING DEFENDANTS
TO FILE A DISPOSITIVE MOTION OR NOTICE REGARDING SUCH MOTION;
INSTRUCTIONS TO CLERK

INTRODUCTION

In this federal civil rights action brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, raises claims that medical staff at Salinas Valley State Prison provided constitutionally inadequate medical care.¹ The complaint has been reviewed by the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a).

In response to the complaint, defendants are directed to file a dispositive motion or notice regarding such motion on or before October 6, 2015. The Court further directs that defendants are to adhere to the notice provisions detailed in Sections 2.a and 10 of the conclusion of this order.

¹ Plaintiff consented to magistrate judge jurisdiction. (Compl. at 11.) The magistrate judge, then, has jurisdiction to decide this motion, even though defendants have not been served or consented to magistrate judge jurisdiction. See Neals v. Norwood, 59 F.3d 530, 532 (5th Cir. 1995)

1 DISCUSSION

2 A. Standard of Review

3 A federal court must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a
4 prisoner seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a
5 governmental entity. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any
6 cognizable claims and dismiss any claims that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim
7 upon which relief may be granted or seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune
8 from such relief. See id. § 1915A(b)(1), (2). Pro se pleadings must be liberally construed.
9 See Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep’t, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988).

10 A “complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to ‘state a
11 claim to relief that is plausible on its face.’” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 129 S. Ct. 1937, 1949
12 (2009) (quoting Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007)). “A claim has 13 facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the 14 reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged.” Id. (quoting
15 Twombly, 550 U.S. at 556). Furthermore, a court “is not required to accept legal 16 conclusions cast in the form of factual allegations if those conclusions cannot reasonably
17 be drawn from the facts alleged.” Clegg v. Cult Awareness Network, 18 F.3d 752, 754–55
18 (9th Cir. 1994). To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two
19 essential elements: (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States
20 was violated, and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the 21 color of state law. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

22 B. Legal Claims

23 In his first claim, plaintiff alleges that in 2012 and 2013, Salinas Valley Drs.
24 R. Mack and Lawrence Gamboa failed to supply him with sufficient medication to treat the 25 pain he experiences from his degenerative spine condition. In his second claim, he alleges 26 that Salinas Valley nurses Mark Allyser and Concepcion falsely accused plaintiff of 27 diverting or hoarding his medication. Both claims, when liberally construed, state claims
28 for relief and shall proceed.

1 CONCLUSION

2 For the foregoing reasons, the Court orders as follows:

3 1. The Clerk of the Court shall issue summons and the United States Marshal
4 shall serve, without prepayment of fees, a copy of the operative complaint in this matter
5 (Docket No. 1), all attachments thereto, and a copy of this order upon Drs. R. Mack and
6 Lawrence Gamboa, and nurses Mark Allyser and Concepcion, at Salinas Valley State
7 Prison. The Clerk shall also mail courtesy copies of the complaint and this order to the 8 California Attorney General’s Office.

9 2. No later than ninety (90) days from the date of this order, defendant shall file
10 a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion with respect to the claims in 11 the complaint found to be cognizable above.

12 a. If defendant elects to file a motion to dismiss on the grounds plaintiff
13 failed to exhaust his available administrative remedies as required by 42 U.S.C.
14 § 1997e(a), defendant shall do so in a motion for summary judgment, as required by 15 Albino v. Baca, 747 F.3d 1162 (9th Cir. 2014).

16 b. Any motion for summary judgment shall be supported by adequate
17 factual documentation and shall conform in all respects to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of 18 Civil Procedure. Defendant is advised that summary judgment cannot be granted, nor 19 qualified immunity found, if material facts are in dispute. If any defendant is of the 20 opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment, he shall so inform the 21 Court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is due.

22 3. Plaintiff’s opposition to the dispositive motion shall be filed with the Court
23 and served on defendant no later than forty-five (45) days from the date defendant’s
24 motion is filed.

25 4. Defendant shall file a reply brief no later than fifteen (15) days after 26 plaintiff’s opposition is filed.

27 5. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is due.
28 No hearing will be held on the motion unless the Court so orders at a later date.

6. All communications by the plaintiff with the Court must be served on defendant, or defendant’s counsel once counsel has been designated, by mailing a true copy of the document to defendant or defendant’s counsel.

7. Discovery may be taken in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. No further court order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(a)(2) or Local Rule 16-1 is required before the parties may conduct discovery.

8. It is plaintiff’s responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the court informed of any change of address and must comply with the court’s orders in a timely fashion. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

9. Extensions of time must be filed no later than the deadline sought to be extended and must be accompanied by a showing of good cause.

10. A decision from the Ninth Circuit requires that pro se prisoner-plaintiffs be given “notice of what is required of them in order to oppose” summary judgment motions at the time of filing of the motions, rather than when the court orders service of process or otherwise before the motions are filed. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 939–41 (9th Cir. 2012). Defendants shall provide the following notice to plaintiff when they file and serves any motion for summary judgment:

The defendants have made a motion for summary judgment by which they seek to have your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact — that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendants' declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 962–63 (9th Cir. 1998).
