Case No. 15-cv-02363-HSG

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART STIPULATION TO FILE EXCESS PAGES AND EXTEND BRIEFING SCHEDULE

Re: Dkt. No. 22

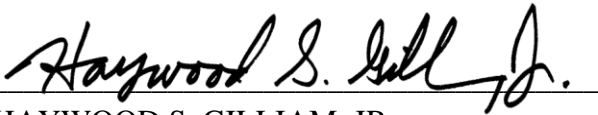

The Court has reviewed the parties' joint stipulated request to file excess pages and extend the briefing schedule in relation to Defendant's anticipated motion to dismiss. Dkt. No. 22. The Court DENIES the parties' request to file excess pages and instead GRANTS leave to file excess pages as follows: Defendant may file a motion to dismiss not exceeding 30 pages, exclusive of supporting papers; Plaintiffs may file an opposition not exceeding 30 pages, exclusive of supporting papers; and Defendant may file a reply not exceeding 25 pages, exclusive of supporting papers.

The Court GRANTS the parties' request to extend the briefing schedule and adopts the schedule as set forth in the joint stipulated request. See Dkt. No. 22 at 1-2.

Finally, the Court VACATES the case management conference currently scheduled for August 25, 2015. The Court will reset the date for the case management conference following resolution of the motion to dismiss.
