4 All dispositive motions shall be filed, served, and noticed by March 03, 2016. The Court shall 5 hear dispositive motions on April 07, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom B, located on the 15th
6 Floor of the Federal Building, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California.

7 All summary judgment motions shall comply with the following requirements for 8 statements of facts:

9 (1) Separate Statement of Facts: Any party filing a motion for 10 summary judgment must file a statement, separate from the motion 11 and memorandum of law, setting forth each material fact on which 12 the party relies in support of the motion. Each material fact in the 13 separate statement must be set forth in a separately numbered 14 paragraph and must refer to a specific admissible portion of the 15 record where the fact finds support (for example, affidavit, 16 deposition, discovery response, etc.). A failure to submit a separate 17 statement of facts in this form may constitute grounds for denial of 18 the motion.

15 (2) Controverting Statement of Facts: Any party opposing a motion 16 for summary judgment must file a statement, separate from that 17 party's memorandum of law, setting forth: (a) for each paragraph of 18 the moving party's separate statement of facts, a correspondingly 19 numbered paragraph indicating whether the party disputes the 20 statement of fact set forth in that paragraph and a reference to the 21 specific admissible portion of the record supporting the party's 22 position if the fact is disputed; and (b) any additional facts that 23 establish a genuine issue of material fact or otherwise preclude 24 judgment in favor of the moving party. Each additional fact must be 25 set forth in a separately numbered paragraph and must refer to a 26 specific admissible portion of the record where the fact finds 27 support.

22 (3) Reply Statement of Facts: If the party opposing summary
23 judgment sets forth additional facts, the moving party shall file a 24 statement, separate from the reply brief, with correspondingly 25 numbered paragraphs indicating whether the party admits or 26 disputes the statement of fact set forth in that paragraph and, if 27 disputed, a reference to the specific admissible portion of the record 28 supporting the party's position. Facts that are not already included in the motion and/or opposition are not permitted.

26 (4) Alternative Procedure: As an alternative to filing a statement of 27 facts and controverting statement of facts, the movant and the party 28 opposing the motion may jointly file a stipulation signed by the parties setting forth a statement of the stipulated facts and the following statement: "The parties agree there is no genuine issue of 1 any material fact.” As to any stipulated facts, the parties so 2 stipulating may state that their stipulations are entered into only for the purpose of the motion for summary judgment and are not intended to be otherwise binding.

3 H. Exchange and Filing of Pretrial Disclosures: By June 15, 2016, lead counsel who will 4 try the case shall meet and confer with respect to the preparation and content of the joint pretrial
5 conference statement and shall exchange the papers described in Rule 26(a)(3). These papers 6 must be filed with the Court by June 30, 2016.

10 claims and defenses which remain to be decided.

11 (2) Relief Prayed: A detailed statement of all the relief claimed, 12 particularly itemizing all elements of damages claimed as well as witnesses, documents or other evidentiary material to be presented concerning the amount of damages.

13 (3) Undisputed Facts: A plain and concise statement of all relevant 14 facts not reasonably disputable, as well as which facts parties will stipulate for incorporation into the trial record without the necessity of supporting testimony or exhibits.

15 (4) Disputed Factual Issues: A plain and concise statement of all 16 disputed factual issues which remain to be decided.

17 (5) Disputed Legal Issues: Without extended legal argument, a 18 concise statement of each disputed point of law concerning liability

J. Witness list: A witness list shall be provided as an appendix to the joint pretrial conference statement. The following information should be included. For each party, a list of all witnesses to be called for trial, including those appearing by deposition. For each witness, a statement of the substance of his or her testimony and an estimate regarding the length of testimony (including direct and cross-examination).

If the witness is an expert witness, the statement should clearly state the expert's theories and conclusions and the bases therefor, which shall also specify to which disputed fact the testimony relates, and an estimate of the time required for direct and cross examination. In addition, the expert's curriculum vitae and report (if any) should be attached. If there are objections to a live witness's testimony, whether in whole or in part, that objection should be raised through a motion in limine.

No party shall be permitted to offer any witness that is not disclosed in its witness list, except with leave of the Court for good cause shown.

K. Exhibit list: A joint list of all exhibits to be offered at trial shall be provided as an appendix to the joint pretrial conference statement. Plaintiff(s) shall mark the exhibits numerically; Defendant(s) shall mark the exhibits alphabetically. The list shall state each proposed exhibit by its number or alphabetical letter, description and sponsoring witness. All documents shall be authenticated prior to trial. The list shall include a joint exhibit list in tabular form, with (a) a column that briefly describes the exhibit; (b) a column that describes for what purpose the party will offer the exhibit and identifies its sponsoring witness; (c) a column that states any objections to the exhibit; (d) a column that briefly responds to the objections; and (e) a blank column for the Court's use. Before this list is filed, the parties shall meet and confer, in person, to consider eliminating duplicate exhibits, and to make a good faith effort to stipulate to admissibility. No party shall be permitted to offer any exhibit that is not disclosed in its exhibit list

L. Use of Discovery Responses: Excerpts of interrogatory responses, responses to requests for admission, and deposition testimony (with specific line references identified) that each party

1 intends to present at trial shall be included as an appendix to the joint pretrial conference
2 statement. If there are objections to the use of written responses, the parties should include a joint 3 memorandum that briefly states the objecting party's objection and the opposing party's response.
4 If there is an objection to the general subject matter of a deponent's testimony, the objection
5 should be made through a motion in limine. The Court expects the parties to meet and confer in 6 good faith in an attempt to resolve specific objections before any statements are filed.

7 M. Motions in limine: The parties are directed to meet and confer in person to resolve any 8 evidentiary disputes prior to filing motions in limine. Any motions in limine shall be filed by June 9 30, 2016, with oppositions due by July 07, 2016. Each motion in limine should address a single 10 topic and contain no more than seven pages of briefing per side. Reply briefs are not permitted.

11 N. Trial Briefs: Each party shall file a trial brief, not to exceed 15 pages absent Court order, 12 by June 30, 2016. The trial briefs shall: (1) summarize the party's theory of the case; (2) identify 13 key evidence; and (3) provide the applicable legal standard, pursuant to Ninth Circuit authority, 14 for all controlling issues of law, including foreseeable procedural and evidentiary issues.

15 O. Voir Dire: In a jury trial, the parties shall file a joint set of requested voir dire to be posed 16 by the Court, as well as any separate questions upon which counsel cannot agree, by June 30, 17 2016. These shall also be submitted to the Court on a portable storage device (such as a USB 18 thumb drive) in Microsoft Word format. Any question on which the parties cannot agree shall be 19 marked as "disputed" and included within the joint set. Counsel will be allowed brief follow-up 20 voir dire after the Court's questioning.

21 P. Jury Instructions: In a jury trial, the parties shall file a joint set of proposed jury 22 instructions by June 30, 2016. These shall also be submitted to the Court on a portable storage 23 device in Microsoft Word format. Jury instructions should conform to the Manual of Model Civil 24 Jury Instructions for the Ninth Circuit. The instructions shall be ordered in a logical sequence, 25 together with a table of contents. Any instruction on which the parties cannot agree shall be 26 marked as "disputed" and included within the jointly submitted instructions, in the place where the 27 party proposing the instruction believes it should be given. Argument for and against each 28 disputed instruction shall be included on a separate page directly following the disputed

1 instruction. At the close of Defendant's case in chief the Court shall hear oral argument on the 2 disputed jury instructions and will then render its rulings.

3 Q. Proposed Verdict Forms: In a jury trial, the parties shall file a joint proposed verdict form
4 by June 30, 2016. If the parties are unable to stipulate to a verdict form, then each party or side
5 shall submit a proposed verdict form. The parties shall also submit the forms to the Court on a 6 portable storage device.

7 R. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law: In a bench trial, each party shall 8 file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law by June 30, 2016. The parties shall also 9 submit the proposed findings to the Court on a portable storage device.

10 S. Pretrial Conferences: The Court shall hold an initial pretrial conference on July 21, 2016
11 at 10:00 a.m., in Courtroom B, 15th Floor, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California.
12 Lead counsel who will try the case must attend the pretrial conference. The purpose of the pretrial
13 conference is for the Court to rule on any issues raised in the pretrial conference statement, 14 motions in limine, and to discuss the trial of the case. The Court shall hold a final pretrial
15 conference on August 18, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom B, to address any outstanding trial 16 issues.

17 T. Trial: The Court shall conduct a jury trial in this matter. The trial shall commence on 18 August 29, 2016 (Trial schedule: Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.), and last 5 days.
19 In a jury trial, jury selection begins at 9:30 a.m. on the first day of trial.

20 For any documents that will be shown to a witness but not admitted into evidence, counsel 21 shall bring the original plus three copies of the documents. The original document will be handed 22 to the Court during testimony and the copies will be given to the witness and opposing counsel 23 during examination.

24 The parties shall maintain their own exhibits during trial. Plaintiff(s) shall mark the 25 exhibits numerically; Defendant(s) shall mark the exhibits alphabetically. Exhibits must be 26 premarked with tags attached to the upper left-hand corner. Sample tags may be obtained from the 27 Courtroom Deputy and are attached hereto. If a photo or chart is being used as an exhibit, the 28 exhibit tag should be placed on the back side of the exhibit. The Court will only admit pre-marked

1 exhibits which were listed on the earlier filed exhibit list. On the day of trial, counsel shall bring 2 the original pre-marked exhibits plus two copies, one for opposing counsel and one (in binders 3 with appropriate label dividers) for the Court. The exhibit binders are to be given to the 4 Courtroom Deputy on the morning of the trial.

11 <http://cand.uscourts.gov/courtroomtech>, and to prepare accordingly. Questions and/or requests to 12 pre-test equipment should be sent to the courtroom deputy.
