- B. Deadline to Seek Leave to Amend Pleadings: May 27, 2016.
- C. Discovery: The parties shall abide by the undersigned's Discovery Standing Order, available at <http://cand.uscourts.gov/mejorders>. All discovery, including depositions of expert witnesses, must be completed by August 23, 2016. Pursuant to Rule 16(b) and Civil Local Rule 26-2, a discovery request or stipulation that calls for responses or depositions after the discovery cut-off date is not enforceable except by order of the Court and upon a showing of good cause. No discovery disputes may be brought to the Court's attention more than seven (7) days after the discovery cut-off date.
- D. Disclosure of Expert Witnesses: Any party wishing to present expert witness testimony shall serve on all other parties the expert's name, address, qualifications, resume, and a written report in compliance with Rule 26(a)(2)(B) by July 29, 2016. This disclosure must be made with respect to a person who is either: (a) specifically retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 702; or (b) a regular employee or agent or treating physician who may be called to provide expert opinion testimony. All parties have a continuing duty to supplement the disclosure of expert witnesses when required under Rule 26(e)(1).
- E. Disclosure of Rebuttal Expert Witnesses: Any expert testimony intended solely to contradict or rebut another party's opinion testimony shall be disclosed in compliance with Rule 26(a)(2)(B) by August 08, 2016.
- F. Limitation on Testimony by Expert Witnesses: Each party is limited to one expert witness in each discipline involved in the case, except by order of the Court. To ensure that all factual material (including tests and/or reports) upon which expert opinion may be based is timely disclosed, an expert witness shall be precluded from testifying about any actions or opinions not disclosed prior to the expert's deposition, unless the parties enter into a written stipulation otherwise. Any party objecting to the admissibility of expert testimony must file a motion in limine to exclude the testimony by the deadline set forth below.
- G. Pretrial Motions: All pretrial motions shall be filed in accordance with Civil Local Rule 7

1 and noticed for hearing on any available Thursday at 10:00 a.m., without contacting the Court.
2 All dispositive motions shall be filed, served, and noticed by September 22, 2016. The Court shall 3 hear dispositive motions on October 27, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom B, located on the 15th 4 Floor of the Federal Building, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California.

5 All summary judgment motions shall comply with the following requirements for 6 statements of facts:

7 (1) Separate Statement of Facts: Any party filing a motion for 8 summary judgment must file a statement, separate from the motion 9 and memorandum of law, setting forth each material fact on which 10 the party relies in support of the motion. Each material fact in the 11 separate statement must be set forth in a separately numbered 12 paragraph and must refer to a specific admissible portion of the record where the fact finds support (for example, affidavit, deposition, discovery response, etc.). A failure to submit a separate statement of facts in this form may constitute grounds for denial of the motion.

13 (2) Controverting Statement of Facts: Any party opposing a motion 14 for summary judgment must file a statement, separate from that 15 party's memorandum of law, setting forth: (a) for each paragraph of 16 the moving party's separate statement of facts, a correspondingly 17 numbered paragraph indicating whether the party disputes the 18 statement of fact set forth in that paragraph and a reference to the specific admissible portion of the record supporting the party's position if the fact is disputed; and (b) any additional facts that establish a genuine issue of material fact or otherwise preclude judgment in favor of the moving party. Each additional fact must be set forth in a separately numbered paragraph and must refer to a specific admissible portion of the record where the fact finds support.

19 (3) Reply Statement of Facts: If the party opposing summary 20 judgment sets forth additional facts, the moving party shall file a 21 statement, separate from the reply brief, with correspondingly 22 numbered paragraphs indicating whether the party admits or 23 disputes the statement of fact set forth in that paragraph and, if disputed, a reference to the specific admissible portion of the record supporting the party's position. Facts that are not already included in the motion and/or opposition are not permitted.

24 (4) Alternative Procedure: As an alternative to filing a statement of 25 facts and controverting statement of facts, the movant and the party 26 opposing the motion may jointly file a stipulation signed by the 27 parties setting forth a statement of the stipulated facts and the 28 following statement: "The parties agree there is no genuine issue of any material fact." As to any stipulated facts, the parties so stipulating may state that their stipulations are entered into only for the purpose of the motion for summary judgment and are not intended to be otherwise binding.

1 H. Exchange and Filing of Pretrial Disclosures: By December 28, 2016, lead counsel who 2 will try the case shall meet and confer with respect to the preparation and content of the joint 3 pretrial conference statement and shall exchange the papers described in Rule 26(a)(3). These 4 papers must be filed with the Court by January 12, 2017.

5 I. Joint Pretrial Conference Statement: By January 12, 2017, the parties shall file a joint 6 pretrial conference statement with the following information:

8 claims and defenses which remain to be decided.

10 particularly itemizing all elements of damages claimed as well as witnesses, documents or other evidentiary material to be presented concerning the amount of damages.

12 facts not reasonably disputable, as well as which facts parties will stipulate for incorporation into the trial record without the necessity of supporting testimony or exhibits.

13 (4) Disputed Factual Issues: A plain and concise statement of all 14 disputed factual issues which remain to be decided.

15 (5) Disputed Legal Issues: Without extended legal argument, a 16 concise statement of each disputed point of law concerning liability or relief, citing supporting statutes and decisions.

17 (6) Agreed Statement: A statement assessing whether all or part of 18 the action may be presented upon an agreed statement of facts.

19 (7) Stipulations: A statement of stipulations requested or proposed for pretrial or trial purposes.

20 (8) Amendments or Dismissals: A statement of requested or 21 proposed amendments to pleadings or dismissals of parties, claims, or defenses.

22 (9) Estimated Time of Trial: An estimate of the number of hours 23 needed for the presentation of each party's case.

24 (10) Bifurcation or Separate Trial of Issues: A statement of whether bifurcation or a separate trial of specific issues is feasible and

27
28 J. Witness list: A witness list shall be provided as an appendix to the joint pretrial conference statement. The following information should be included. For each party, a list of all witnesses to be called for trial, including those appearing by deposition. For each witness, a statement of the substance of his or her testimony and an estimate regarding the length of testimony (including direct and cross-examination).

If the witness is an expert witness, the statement should clearly state the expert's theories and conclusions and the bases therefor, which shall also specify to which disputed fact the testimony relates, and an estimate of the time required for direct and cross examination. In addition, the expert's curriculum vitae and report (if any) should be attached. If there are objections to a live witness's testimony, whether in whole or in part, that objection should be raised through a motion in limine.

No party shall be permitted to offer any witness that is not disclosed in its witness list, except with leave of the Court for good cause shown.

K. Exhibit list: A joint list of all exhibits to be offered at trial shall be provided as an appendix to the joint pretrial conference statement. Plaintiff(s) shall mark the exhibits numerically; Defendant(s) shall mark the exhibits alphabetically. The list shall state each proposed exhibit by its number or alphabetical letter, description and sponsoring witness. All documents shall be authenticated prior to trial. The list shall include a joint exhibit list in tabular form, with (a) a column that briefly describes the exhibit; (b) a column that describes for what purpose the party will offer the exhibit and identifies its sponsoring witness; (c) a column that states any objections to the exhibit; (d) a column that briefly responds to the objections; and (e) a blank column for the Court's use. Before this list is filed, the parties shall meet and confer, in person, to consider eliminating duplicate exhibits, and to make a good faith effort to stipulate to admissibility. No party shall be permitted to offer any exhibit that is not disclosed in its exhibit list

L. Use of Discovery Responses: Excerpts of interrogatory responses, responses to requests for admission, and deposition testimony (with specific line references identified) that each party intends to present at trial shall be included as an appendix to the joint pretrial conference statement. If there are objections to the use of written responses, the parties should include a joint

1 memorandum that briefly states the objecting party's objection and the opposing party's response.
2 If there is an objection to the general subject matter of a deponent's testimony, the objection 3 should be made through a motion in limine. The Court expects the parties to meet and confer in 4 good faith in an attempt to resolve specific objections before any statements are filed.

5 M. Motions in limine: The parties are directed to meet and confer in person to resolve any 6 evidentiary disputes prior to filing motions in limine. Any motions in limine shall be filed by 7 January 12, 2017, with oppositions due by January 19, 2017. Each motion in limine should 13 authority, for all controlling issues of law, including foreseeable procedural and evidentiary issues.

14 O. Voir Dire: In a jury trial, the parties shall file a joint set of requested voir dire to be posed 15 by the Court, as well as any separate questions upon which counsel cannot agree, by January 12, 16 2017. These shall also be submitted to the Court on a portable storage device (such as a USB

22 storage device in Microsoft Word format. Jury instructions should conform to the Manual of 23 Model Civil Jury Instructions for the Ninth Circuit. The instructions shall be ordered in a logical 24 sequence, together with a table of contents. Any instruction on which the parties cannot agree 25 shall be marked as "disputed" and included within the jointly submitted instructions, in the place 26 where the party proposing the instruction believes it should be given. Argument for and against 27 each disputed instruction shall be included on a separate page directly following the disputed 28 instruction. At the close of Defendant's case in chief the Court shall hear oral argument on the disputed jury instructions and will then render its rulings.

Lead counsel who will try the case must attend the pretrial conference. The purpose of the pretrial conference is for the Court to rule on any issues raised in the pretrial conference statement, motions in limine, and to discuss the trial of the case. The Court shall hold a final pretrial conference on March 02, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom B, to address any outstanding trial issues.

T. Trial: The Court shall conduct a jury trial in this matter. The trial shall commence on March 13, 2017 (Trial schedule: Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.), and last 5 days. In a jury trial, jury selection begins at 9:30 a.m. on the first day of trial.

For any documents that will be shown to a witness but not admitted into evidence, counsel shall bring the original plus three copies of the documents. The original document will be handed to the Court during testimony and the copies will be given to the witness and opposing counsel during examination.

The parties shall maintain their own exhibits during trial. Plaintiff(s) shall mark the exhibits numerically; Defendant(s) shall mark the exhibits alphabetically. Exhibits must be premarked with tags attached to the upper left-hand corner. Sample tags may be obtained from the Courtroom Deputy and are attached hereto.
