UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JASON GERAY,
Plaintiff,
v.
WILLIAM MUNIZ,
Defendant.

Case No. 15-cv-05354-VC (PR)

ORDER FOR PETITIONER TO SHOW CAUSE

Re: Dkt. Nos. 3, 5

Petitioner Jason Geray, a state inmate at Salinas Valley State Prison, files this pro se petition for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. His motions for leave to proceed in forma pauperis are granted.

Geray’s claim is that “state documents” contain false information that he escaped from Atascadero State Hospital on April 15, 2009. In support of his contention that the “documents” are false, Geray submits a February 26, 2010 probation report indicating that, on April 15, 2009, he was remanded back from Atascadero State Hospital. His petition also indicates that, on August 8, 2008, he was convicted of use of a deadly weapon and, on November 29, 2010, he was sentenced to 19 years.

From the face of the petition it is unclear how Geray states a claim that is cognizable in a federal habeas corpus proceeding. A federal court may entertain a habeas petition from a state prisoner “only on the ground that he is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States.” 28 U.S.C. § 2254(a). The fact that the documents may incorrectly state that Geray escaped from Atascadero does not appear to have given rise to a state conviction or sentence. Therefore, he is not in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States based on this allegedly false information. However, if his sentence was increased or if he lost good time credits because of the false information, he may be able to state a cognizable habeas claim.

Therefore, Geray is ordered to show cause why his petition should not be dismissed for failure to state a cognizable habeas claim by filing with the Court a short statement, within twenty-eight days from the date of this Order, indicating whether he was convicted of a crime, whether his sentence was increased or whether he lost good time credits because of the allegedly false information. If Geray does not file a statement within this time frame, his petition shall be dismissed with prejudice.

This Order terminates docket numbers 3 and 5.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
