

Dockets.Justia.com

with Civil Local Rule 6-3 because she never attempted to obtain a stipulation to shorten time, did not submit a declaration with her administrative motion, and identified no substantial harm or prejudice that would occur without the requested relief; and (2) oral argument is necessary to address new issues raised for the first time in Hart's reply brief (Dkt. No. 95). Both points are well-taken. Unum also states, however, that it does not actually oppose an "earlier" hearing date on September 21 or 28 (id. at 2-3). And while Hart's administrative motion seems to request a hearing date within 35 days, it also proposes dates all the way through October of this year, including September 21 and 28 (Dkt. No. 94 at 2). This order therefore sets Hart's motion for fees and interest (Dkt. No. 80) for hearing on SEPTEMBER 21 AT 8:00 A.M. Hart's administrative motion is GRANTED only to the extent stated herein. IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: August 23, 2017.

William

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Unum opposes the administrative motion on the bases that (1) Hart failed to comply