 27 In this immigration case Plaintiff Khalil Janjua (“Janjua”) filed an amended complaint on 28 August 4, 2016 challenging – under the Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”) – the United 29 States and Immigration Services’ denial of his application to adjust his immigration status to that 30 of a lawful permanent resident. Defendants filed their answer to Janjua’s amended complaint on

31 Joint Stipulation to Set Disposition Motions Deadline
 32 Case No.: 3:15-cv-05475

1 August 16, 2016. The parties agree that discovery is inappropriate because judicial review in 2 cases brought under the APA is limited to “the whole record or those parts of it cited by a party.”

5 Janjua intends to move for summary judgment, and the parties stipulate to January 20, 6 2017 as the deadline for that motion. The parties next stipulate to February 20, 2017 as the 7 deadline for Defendants’ opposition to Janjua’s summary judgement motion and cross-motion
8 for summary judgment, should Defendants choose to file one. The parties further stipulate that 9 Janjua’s reply to Defendants’ opposition and opposition to Defendants’ cross-motion, should 10 they file one, is March 22, 2017. Finally, the parties stipulate that if Defendants file a cross-
11 motion on February 20, 2017, their reply to Plaintiff’s opposition to that motion would be due 12 April 21, 2017.
13

14 The parties respectfully suggest that, in light of their agreement on the above matters, the 15 Court should vacate the case management conference now scheduled for Thursday November 16 10, 2016 at 9:30 a.m., and instead issue a case management order consistent with this Report.
