UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ALAMDEEP KAUR,

Plaintiff,

v.

OFFICE DEPOT, INC., a Delaware corporation; and DOES 1 through 10,

Defendant.

Case No. 3:16-cv-01410-JST

JOINT STIPULATED REQUEST FOR REFERRAL TO MAGISTRATE FOR SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE AND CONTINUANCE OF EXPERT
 DISCOVERY DEADLINE

~~{PROPOSED}~~ ORDER

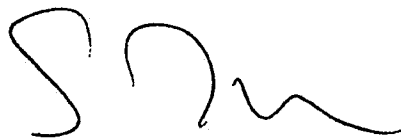

1 Plaintiff, Alamdeep Kaur, and Defendant, Office Depot, Inc., ("Office Depot"), by
2 and through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate and jointly request that the Court refer this
3 matter to Magistrate Judge Nathaniel Cousins for settlement conference.

4 The parties also agree that the currently pending expert depositions shall be stayed
5 and re-scheduled to dates after the settlement conference and the current hearing for summary
6 judgment (set for May 25, 2017). Therefore the parties stipulate and request that the Court extend 7 the expert discovery cut-off (currently May 15, 2017) to June 23, 2017. No other deadlines shall be
8 affected. The current pre-trial conference date is August 18, 2017, and the trial is set for September
9 11, 2017.¹

10 WHEREFORE, the Parties respectfully request that the Court refer this matter to 11 Magistrate Judge Cousins and extend the expert discovery cut-off as set forth above.

12 Respectfully submitted,

25
26 ¹ The original trial date of June 26, 2017, was continued to September 11, 2017, on the Court's own
27 motion. However, lead counsel for Defendant had another previously set trial in Sacramento 28 Superior Court for September 18, 2017. Defendant has not objected to or requested a continuance of the new trial date at this time because he is requesting a continuance of the conflicting Sacramento trial. To the extent that the Sacramento Court refuses to continue that trial, Defendant will promptly inform this Court.

ORDER

Upon the parties' stipulation and for good cause, the parties are referred to Magistrate Judge Nathaniel Cousins for a Mandatory Settlement Conference. The expert discovery cut-off is continued to June 23, 2017.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 25, 2017

HONORABLE JON S. TIGAR
U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE
