9 v.

10 STEPHEN LINFOOT, et al.,

11 Defendant(s).

Case No. 18-cv-00229-CRB (PR)

ORDER STAYING ACTION AND ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSING
CASE

(ECF No. 25)

12 Plaintiff, an inmate at the Humboldt County Correctional Facility in Eureka, California,
13 filed a pro se civil rights complaint for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging that on
14 December 6, 2016 officers of the Eureka Police Department used excessive force when they shot
15 him multiple times while effectuating his arrest.

16 On April 20, 2018, the court (Lloyd, M.J.) found that, liberally construed, plaintiff's
17 allegations are sufficient to state cognizable claims under § 1983 for use of excessive force in 18 violation of the Fourth Amendment against the named individual police officer defendants, and 19 asked them to waive service and file a dispositive motion within ninety-one days. On June 22,
20 2018, defendants filed an answer and declination to magistrate judge jurisdiction, and on June 26,
21 2018, the case was reassigned to the undersigned.

22 On July 2, 2018, defendants filed a notice of related case and/or pendency of other action
23 or proceedings informing the court that plaintiff is being criminally prosecuted in Humboldt
24 County Superior Court of various offenses arising from the same transaction or event as this civil
25 rights action, including assault with a semi-automatic firearm upon a peace officer, assault with a
26 deadly weapon other than a firearm, and obstruction or interference with an executive officer via 27 threat or violence. On July 19, 2018, defendants filed a motion for an extension of time of one
28 year to provide time for plaintiff's state criminal trial to resolve.

Good cause appearing therefor, the instant civil rights action for damages under § 1983 is STAYED pending the outcome of plaintiff's criminal charges in Humboldt County Superior Court. See Keating v. Office of Thrift Supervision, 45 F.3d 322, 324 (9th Cir. 1995) (district court has discretion to stay civil proceedings in face of a parallel criminal proceeding).

The clerk is instructed to ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSE this case. Nothing further will take place in this case until the criminal charges against plaintiff are resolved in state court and, within 30 days thereafter, the parties jointly move to reopen the case and lift the court's stay. The parties are warned that failure to move to reopen the case and lift the court's stay within 30 days of the resolution of plaintiff's criminal charges in state court may result in sanctions.

Defendants' motion for an extension of time (ECF No. 25) is DISMISSED as moot.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
