XEZAKIA ROUSE,
Plaintiff,
v.
RONALD HAYES ABERNETHY,
Defendant.

Case No. 21-cv-05708-JSC

ORDER RE: PLAINTIFF’S
DISCOVERY REQUESTS,
PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR LEAVE
TO AMEND, AND DEFENDANT’S MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS

Re: Dkt. Nos. 35, 40, 44, 55, 61

Plaintiff brings Section 1983 claims and a legal malpractice claim against his former public defender. (Dkt. No. 14; see Dkt. No. 13.)<sup>1</sup> Before the Court are Plaintiff’s motion to compel discovery responses from City of Napa and Napa County officials, (Dkt. No. 35); Plaintiff’s motion to compel discovery responses from City of Napa 911 Communications Manager Gus Ulloth, (Dkt. No. 40; see Dkt. Nos. 42, 48, 50, 52); Plaintiff’s letter requesting issuance of subpoenas, (Dkt. No. 61); Plaintiff’s motion for leave to amend, (Dkt. No. 44 at 23–25; see Dkt. No. 45); and Defendant’s motion for judgment on the pleadings, (Dkt. No. 55; see Dkt. Nos. 56, 60, 62, 63, 64, 65). Having carefully considered the parties’ submissions and reviewed the other filings on the docket, and with the benefit of a hearing on November 17, 2022, the Court GRANTS Defendant’s motion for judgment on the pleadings, DENIES Plaintiff’s discovery requests, and DENIES Plaintiff’s motion for leave to amend.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff was convicted of a crime in California in 2013.<sup>2</sup> Defendant is the chief public

1 defender for Napa County, who represented Plaintiff. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant knowingly
 2 refused to file a first appeal of Plaintiff’s conviction on Plaintiff’s request. He also alleges that
 3 Defendant improperly represented him in extradition hearings by refusing to send out Plaintiff’s
 4 legal mail, which included letters to the Governor challenging his extradition. Defendant “knew
 5 [P]laintiff was suing the Jail for deliberate indifference to a serious medical need . . . and
 6 conspired with jail administrators to protect their ‘county teammate’ by attempting to thwart
 7 [Plaintiff’s] mail service.” (Dkt. No. 14 at 7 (emphasis omitted).) As a result, Plaintiff was 8 extradited to New Mexico and incarcerated until a post-conviction motion to amend sentencing
 9 order was granted, in December 2014. Plaintiff alleges that, although he was guilty of committing
 10 the crimes that led to the extradition, he had already completed the full sentence for those crimes.
 11 Thus, his incarceration for nearly two years after being extradited to New Mexico was unlawful.
 12 (See id. at 8, 10–11.)

13 Plaintiff filed suit in July 2021. The operative Second Amended Complaint names
 14 Defendant in his official capacity under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and alleges deprivation of Plaintiff’s
 15 constitutional rights. He identifies claims for ineffective assistance of counsel; equal protection
 16 and due process under the Fourteenth Amendment; and “legal malpractice leading to double
 17 jeopardy.” (Id. at 4, 7, 10–11.) Plaintiff requests relief in the form of a ruling that he had a right
 18 to have his first appeal filed, and a ruling that Defendant should have preserved Plaintiff’s right to 19 contact the Governor. (Id. at 5, 11.) The Second Amended Complaint does not seek monetary
 20 relief or damages. (See Dkt. No. 10.)

21 DISCUSSION

22 I. Defendant’s Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

23 “Judgment on the pleadings is properly granted when, accepting all factual allegations in 24 the complaint as true, there is no issue of material fact in dispute, and the moving party is entitled 25

26 records, (Dkt. No. 56), is GRANTED. See Bias v. Moynihan, 508 F.3d 1212, 1225 (9th Cir. 2007)
 27 (“We may take notice of proceedings in other courts, both within and without the federal judicial 28 system, if those proceedings have a direct relation to matters at issue.” (cleaned up)). The records indicate Plaintiff was charged on December 4, 2013 and sentenced on March 25, 2014. (Dkt. Nos.
 56-2, 56-5.)

1 to judgment as a matter of law.” Chavez v. United States, 683 F.3d 1102, 1108 (9th Cir. 2012)
 2 (cleaned up); see Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(c). Like a motion to dismiss under Federal Rule of Civil
 3 Procedure 12(b)(6), a motion under Rule 12(c) challenges the legal sufficiency of the claims
 4 asserted in the complaint. Chavez, 683 F.3d at 1108.

5 Plaintiff’s claims are legally insufficient because they are barred by the statutes of 6 limitations.<sup>3</sup> See Jones v. Bock, 549 U.S. 199, 215 (2007) (“If the allegations [in the complaint]
 7 show that relief is barred by the applicable statute of limitations, the complaint is subject to 8 dismissal for failure to state a claim . . .”).

9 A. Section 1983

10 Plaintiff’s Section 1983 claims have a two-year statute of limitations. Jones v. Blanas, 393
 11 F.3d 918, 927 (9th Cir. 2004) (“For actions under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, courts apply the forum state’s 12 statute of limitations for personal injury actions, along with the forum state’s law regarding 13 tolling, including equitable tolling, except to the extent any of these laws is inconsistent with 14 federal law.”); see Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 335.1 (setting two-year statute of limitations for 15 personal injury actions). The claims accrued when Plaintiff “kn[ew] or ha[d] reason to know of 16 the injury which is the basis of the action.” Knox v. Davis, 260 F.3d 1009, 1013 (9th Cir. 2001)
 17 (cleaned up). The bases for Plaintiff’s Section 1983 claims are ineffective assistance of counsel, 18 violation of equal protection, and violation of due process. The latest relevant date alleged in 19 Plaintiff’s complaint is December 2014, when he was released from incarceration in New Mexico
 20 after being wrongfully extradited there.

21 Tolling by Disability of Imprisonment. California law tolls the statute of limitations for 22 up to two years if the plaintiff is “imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution under the 23 sentence of a criminal court” at the time his claim accrues. Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 352.1(a). But 24 Plaintiff was imprisoned at the latest in December 2014, and tolling on that basis ended when he
 25 was released from physical custody. See Boag v. Chief of Police, City of Portland, 669 F.2d 587,
 26

27 <sup>3</sup> Defendant’s objection to Plaintiff’s supplemental opposition, (Dkt. No. 64), is DENIED in the 28 Court’s discretion. The Court read and considered Plaintiff’s supplemental opposition. (Dkt. No.
 63.)

1 589 (9th Cir. 1982) (per curiam).

2 Equitable Tolling. California law also equitably tolls the statute of limitations “as 3 necessary to ensure fundamental practicality and fairness.” Blanas, 393 F.3d at 928 (cleaned up).
4 To decide whether to apply equitable tolling, courts balance “injustice to the plaintiff” against the 5 “public policy interest in ensuring prompt resolution of legal claims.” Id. (cleaned up). Plaintiff
6 has not identified any particular injustice that would outweigh the public policy interest on the 7 other side. Cf. id. at 928–30 (applying equitable tolling where plaintiff had been continuously
8 detained since claim accrued and had “acted in good faith to pursue his claims”).

9 Continuing Violation. Finally, the “continuing violation theory . . . allow[s] a plaintiff to 10 seek relief for events outside of the limitations period” if he sufficiently alleges that multiple “acts
11 are related closely enough to constitute a continuing violation, and that one or more of the acts
12 falls within the limitations period.” Knox, 260 F.3d at 1013 (cleaned up). Plaintiff alleges that 13 Napa officials have continued to harass him in the years since 2014, although he does not allege 14 specific dates; these allegations are not related closely enough to Defendant’s representation of 15 Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s extradition, or Plaintiff’s incarceration in New Mexico to constitute a 16 continuing violation. To the extent the complaint can be read to allege “continuing impact from 17 past violations,” that impact does not create a continuing violation. Id. (cleaned up).

18 * * *

19 Thus, drawing all reasonable inferences from Plaintiff’s filings in his favor, Plaintiff’s
20 Section 1983 claims accrued at the latest in December 2014 and were filed more than six years
21 later, after the statute of limitations had run.

22 B. Legal Malpractice

23 Plaintiff’s legal malpractice claim also has a two-year statute of limitations. See Cal. Civ.
24 Proc. Code § 340.6(a) (setting two-year statute of limitations for legal malpractice actions “[i]f the 25 plaintiff is required to establish his or her factual innocence for an underlying criminal charge as 26 an element of his or her claim”); see also Coscia v. McKenna & Cuneo, 25 P.3d 670, 673 (Cal.
27 2001) (requiring plaintiff with a criminal legal malpractice claim to establish actual innocence).
28 As with his other claims, the latest relevant date alleged in Plaintiff’s complaint is December

1 2014, when he was released from incarceration in New Mexico after being wrongfully extradited
2 there. Even assuming that Plaintiff's release was "postconviction exoneration in the form of a
3 final judicial disposition of the criminal case," Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 340.6(a), and established his 4 actual innocence, then his claim accrued at the latest in December 2014 and was filed more than 5 six years later, after the statute of limitations had run.

6 * * *

7 Plaintiff's claims have two-year statutes of limitations but were filed more than six years
8 after they accrued. Accordingly, they are legally insufficient and Defendant's motion for 9 judgment on the pleadings is GRANTED. See Bock, 549 U.S. at 215; Chavez, 683 F.3d at 1108.
10 Leave to amend is denied as futile as there are no facts Plaintiff could plead in good faith to avoid 11 the statute of limitations bar.

12 II. Plaintiff's Discovery Requests

13 Because the Court grants Defendant's motion for judgment on the pleadings, it DENIES 14 Plaintiff's motions to compel and letter requesting issuance of subpoenas as moot. (Dkt. Nos. 35, 15 40, 61.) As explained above, Defendant is entitled to judgment on the pleadings because
16 Plaintiff's claims fail as a matter of law; therefore, it does not matter what the requested discovery
17 would show.

18 III. Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to Amend

19 Plaintiff's motion for leave to amend, (Dkt. No. 44 at 23-25), is governed by Rule 16
20 because it was filed after the deadline to move to amend had passed, (see Dkt. No. 28 (June 23, 21 2022 deadline)). "[A] party seeking to amend . . . after [the] date specified in [the] scheduling
22 order must first show 'good cause' for amendment under Rule 16(b), then, if 'good cause' be 23 shown, the party must demonstrate that amendment was proper under Rule 15 . . ." Johnson v.
24 Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 608 (9th Cir. 1992) (cleaned up); see In re W. States
25 Wholesale Nat. Gas Antitrust Litig., 715 F.3d 716, 737 (9th Cir. 2013).

26 Plaintiff's claims related to Defendant's representation of Plaintiff, Plaintiff's extradition,
27 and Plaintiff's incarceration in New Mexico are barred by the statutes of limitations. The new 28 evidence Plaintiff seeks to add to the complaint does not alter this outcome. Thus, amendment

1 would be futile and Plaintiff’s motion is DENIED. See Bonin v. Calderon, 59 F.3d 815, 845 (9th
2 Cir. 1995); Sackett v. Beaman, 399 F.2d 884, 892 (9th Cir. 1968).

3 The Court also denies leave to amend to add unspecified claims related to an action before
4 Magistrate Judge Spero. Plaintiff has not shown any cause for raising such claims in this action;
5 indeed, none of the claims appear to have anything to do with the defendant in this lawsuit.
6 Similarly, his request to make unspecified claims against unidentified Napa officials is denied.
7 This lawsuit was allowed to proceed on two claims only, see 28 U.S.C. § 1915, and those two 8 claims are time barred.

9 CONCLUSION

10 Defendant’s motion for judgment on the pleadings is GRANTED. (Dkt. No. 55.)
11 Plaintiff’s discovery requests are DENIED. (Dkt. Nos. 35, 40, 61.) Plaintiff’s motion for leave to 12 amend is DENIED. (Dkt. No. 44 at 23–25.) Separate judgment will be entered.

13 This Order disposes of Docket Nos. 35, 55.
