To: Undisclosed-Recipient

I am looking for a specific answer.
Not opinions
Please DO NOT write me and say "I THINK SO"
Please DO write me and say "YES IT IS A FREECYCLE RULE, HERE IT IS IN PRINT"
WWW.BLAHBLAHBLAH.COM

Is it a rule or Freecycle law that groups must be approved?
Can anyone just start a QUOTE "FREECYCLEBOONIEGROUP"
And run it anyway they want without obeying the rules Freecycle has put down???

TIA
Susan

To be an official Freecycle group, they must be approved and on the Freecycle.org list.

See Deron's Response's - Lists Official or Not: If it has a link on freecycle.org, it's official. Message # 15278

Lists Official or Not 01/18/05 If it has a link on freecycle.org, it's official 15278

It is a rule. I don't know if it's on the web anywhere, but anyone who wants to use the Freecycle name has to abide by certain rules - including the one that says new groups have to be approved.

Namaste,
Cyn

So who deals with the ones that use the name for groups just for spamming methods?

Now I have tried to deal with the goa's doa's whatever they are and whoever they are and I have never not once gotten a response from them.

I really think they are a figment of someone's imagination.

When I know that is what someone is going to say is contact them.

My time is more valuable than that.

And the reason I am so nasty about it is I think the Freecycle name is more valuable than that also.

So what do you do?????

We have a wonderful GOA for Tennessee and she has made her presence known on the TNmodsquad. Have you contacted Traci Dale at tennessee @ freecycle.org?

If not, please do.

I don't know why I am receiving this in my personal e-mail, this is nasty and rude.

Why are you yelling and making demands to me personally is beyond my understanding.

But I will answer your questions, and I will answer them on the list, where they belong.

I hope this will answer your questions.

I found out about Freecycle a couple of months ago, and I went through all the required steps to create a group. (as follows)

- 1) fill in the form on: <http://www.freecycle.org/startagroup.php>
- 2) follow the step by step instructions
- 3) a freecycle state approval person will contact you, to find out detailed information about your area, population of your proposed area, and the yahoogroups site you have to create before you can be approved.

I was contacted in a reasonable amount of time, by a very nice person, and was on my way to having a new group approved. But then I found out that the next town over from me was in need of a new moderator. And since that's what I "do", I volunteered.

Freecycle owns the name, and people are not allowed to just create one without approval from Freecycle. I'm sure they do, and I'm also sure that they get shut down when they are discovered running a non approved group with a trademarked name.

This little statement can be found at the bottom of the page I listed above:

Please note that use of the materials provided to you in this process (including files, emails, and the Freecycle™ logo and name) is reserved for approved Freecycle groups. You may use them freely while involved in the approval process, but if you are notified that your group has not been approved, please note that the name Freecycle, any variation thereof, and any materials made available to you on this site or in this process (whether used verbatim or altered) must be removed from your group immediately (or your group must be deleted immediately). Thank you.
