

EXHIBIT 107

Hello,

I've added you to my freecyclemodsquad group at Yahoo! Groups, a free, easy-to-use service. Yahoo! Groups makes it easy to send and receive group messages, coordinate events, share photos and files, and more.

My introductory message to you:

Shane,
Am adding you to group directly to view old posts for now until I can get the new major tennis bum password....

Deron

Description of the group:

Greetings Freecycle Group Moderators This is the official forum for Freecycle moderators in the US as well as for those countries who haven't opted to vote in their own forums. If you are in the UK, Ireland, France or Canada, you'll need to join your national group in order to vote, etc. rather than this group. US mods, as well as moderators of other countries who have not opted to vote directly in their Modsquads, are welcome to join this one. We recommend that you at least receive special notices to be aware of the latest organizational info. Here we share press releases, discuss issues and challenges and discuss or vote on the rare new rule. The Freecycle Modsquad is a meeting place for Freecycle moderators to live, learn and prosper.

What you'll find in this group
Over 2600 moderators from around the world, offering advice, opinions, fun stories from their own groups, commonly used ADMIN messages that can be used on your group, updates to issues within The Freecycle Network, links to resources to assist you, group promotional material and more.
