Many of us know that TFN is already a bit crazy in trying to clamp down on free speech freedoms, but now is a great time to further the cause and keep freecycle free for everyone forever (and drive TFN even crazier).

What you can do on your own:

- Using TFN's directory, please contact all the freecycle groups in your state and surrounding states to let them know that freecycle is a generic term. Ask them to visit <http://greenribbon.us> for more information. There is no need to be that organized about it but if you think you have a state well covered, please post a note to fnnext. You'll need to dribble the mails out a few at a time and by as many people as possible to get around Yahoo's intricate group owner spam catchers. Make all your emails unique -- don't repeat exactly the same contents or subject, etc.

2) If you currently have a group within TPN, either take it out of TPN and tell all your members that freecycling should stay free or do comply initially with TPN's request so that your group is not deleted but then later sprinkle freecycling around your group and other groups so the free grassroots movement continues to be free (this is likely to really drive TPN nuts). Let more people know about <http://greenribbon.us>

3) Do give TPN GOAs a hard time because they are doing bad things by limiting free speech. Free speech is very important. Let everyone know that TPN does not need to control freecycling for TPN to be successful.

4) Get your freecycling is free statements to Eric for posting on <http://greenribbon.us>

5) Let others know that freecycling is a wonderful thing that people can do via Google, Craigslist, Yahoo Groups, any email list, or however they wish -- even just leaving stuff out on the curb with a "Free" or "Freecycle this" note attached.

Spread the word and let the word be free.

Enjoy!

Cheers,
Tim
