ORDER FOR
SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF
FROM PLAINTIFF

12 On June 3, 2009, Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission
13 (SEC) filed a motion for an order of civil contempt against 14 Defendant Cort L. Poyner for his failure to pay any portion of the 15 $413,767 in disgorgement and $61,118 in prejudgment interest that 16 was ordered by the Court in the November 3, 2008 Revised Final 17 Judgment As to Defendant Cort L. Poyner. On July 20, 2009, the 18 Court issued an Order for Further Financial Documentation from 19 Defendant on Plaintiff's Motion for Contempt (July 20, 2009 Order)
20 which granted Poyner four weeks from the date of the Order in which 21 to file specified financial documents.

22 On August 17, 2009, Poyner filed a Supplemental Opposition to 23 SEC's Motion for Contempt in which he requested six more weeks in 24 which to file the specified documents. SEC filed an opposition to 25 Poyner's request for additional time and moved that the Court
26 impose civil contempt sanctions.

27 On August 31, 2009, the Court issued an Order Granting in Part 28

1 Defendant Poyner's Request for Additional Time, in which it granted
2 Poyner one week from the date of the Order to file all the 3 financial documents required in the July 20, 2009 Order that he 4 already had in his possession, a sworn financial disclosure 5 statement, copies of tax returns, and copies of letters to 6 officials involved in his Florida forfeiture action requesting that 7 any money returnable to Poyner or the trusts be held by the trustee 8 or by the United States for the purpose of paying disgorgement in 9 this proceeding. The Court also ordered Poyner to file, within 10 three weeks from the date of the Order, the rest of the financial 11 documents required in the July 20, 2009 Order.

12 On September 8, 2009, Poyner filed a supplemental brief and 13 declaration of Tom J. LoSavio, Poyner's attorney, in compliance 14 with the first part of the August 31, 2009 Order. In his 15 declaration, Mr. LoSavio stated that Poyner had sent his firm a CD
16 ROM of documents from Pension Financial Services and a large number 17 of documents from the Bank of America, which Mr. LoSavio had 18 delivered to Plaintiff, the Securities and Exchange Commission, 19 without filing them with the Court. Poyner did not file any 20 additional documents with the Court two weeks later as required by 21 the August 31, 2009 Order.

22 Plaintiff has not filed a brief with the Court subsequent to 23 the August 31, 2009 Order. Because Poyner has delivered documents
24 to Plaintiff that he has not filed with the Court, the Court cannot 25 determine whether Poyner is in compliance with its Orders on 26 Plaintiff's motion for contempt. Accordingly, the Court orders 27 Plaintiff to file a supplemental brief stating its position on its 28 pending motion for contempt, describing whether Poyner has or has

1 not complied with the Court's Orders and whether it wishes to 2 pursue its motion for contempt or to withdraw it. Plaintiff must 3 file its supplemental brief within two weeks from the date of this 4 Order.

5 CONCLUSION

6 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff is ordered to file a 7 supplemental brief on its motion for contempt within two weeks from 8 the date of this Order.
