20 The parties stipulate to continue the trial and pre-trial dates in this employment
 21 discrimination set for trial on May 18, 2009. The reasons for the continuance are set forth 22 below.

23 On March 31, 2009, the parties met and conferred regarding trial witnesses. From this 24 conference, it became apparent that plaintiff intended to call three witnesses who had not 25 previously been disclosed in initial disclosures. Plaintiff agreed to make all three witnesses 26 available for deposition. The continuance of the pre-trial and trial dates would facilitate this 27 process. Should the continuance not be granted, the Federal Defendant maintains it would need 28 to move in limine to exclude these three witnesses and the rebuttal witnesses from trial.

1 Second, the Federal Defendant's motion for summary judgment was scheduled for 2 hearing on April 7, 2009. The Court continued the hearing date to April 21, 2009, the same date
3 that the parties' pre-trial filings are due. Should the Federal Defendant's motion be granted, all 4 pre-trial filings would be obviated. If the motion were granted in part, the scope of the pre-trial
5 filings would be affected. The brief continuance would allow the pre-trial filings to be more 6 meaningful, as they would have the benefit of the Court's order.

7 Third, the parties are scheduled for a further settlement conference with Judge Larson on 8 April 22, 2009. The continuance would allow the parties to make one final, good faith effort to 9 settle without incurring the additional attorneys' fees associated with the pre-trial filings.

10 In light of the above, the parties request that all pre-trial filings be due on May 22, 2009, 11 and that the pre-trial conference be continued to June 9, 2009. The parties further request that 12 the trial date be continued to July 6, 2009, the next available date for the Court and all parties.
