IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

FREDERICK GATLIN,
Petitioner,
v.
JAMES TILTON,
Respondent.

No. 07-03696 CW
ORDER FOR RESPONDENT TO LODGE
PETITIONER'S
MEDICAL RECORDS
WITH THE COURT

---

On July 16, 2008, the Court issued an Order granting Respondent's motion to dismiss based on untimeliness in which it reviewed the evidence Petitioner submitted and determined that he did not show an extraordinary circumstance meriting equitable tolling. Petitioner timely appealed and, on May 6, 2010, the Ninth Circuit issued an order vacating and remanding for further proceedings. The Ninth Circuit ruled that the medical records Petitioner submitted made a colorable showing that he suffered from a serious mental illness for at least a substantial portion of the five-year period at issue. However, the court noted that, because Petitioner proceeded pro se, the record contains only a limited and sporadic collection of his medical records so that it is difficult to gain a complete understanding of his mental health over the course of his incarceration. The court also noted that Respondent

1 represented at oral argument that it was in possession of the
2 entirety of Petitioner's prison medical records. Therefore, the
3 Ninth Circuit ordered that this Court, on remand, examine
4 Petitioner's medical records to determine the extent of his mental 5 capacity during the relevant five-year period, and that, if the
6 records suggest that Petitioner's mental illness affected his
7 ability to file a habeas petition during the entire relevant
8 period, an evidentiary hearing would be warranted.

9 Therefore, Respondent is ordered, within ten days from the 10 date of this Order, to lodge with the Court the entirety of 11 Petitioner's prison medical records. The Court will review the 12 records and determine if an evidentiary hearing is warranted.

13
15 IT IS SO ORDERED.
