WHEREAS on January 25, 2010, the Court entered its Order Revising Case Management Schedule (Dkt. No. 199); and

WHEREAS on August 13, 2010, the parties filed, and the Court entered, a Third Stipulation and Order for Relief from Case Management Schedule Pursuant to Local Rule 16-2(d) extending all deadlines because, among other reasons, Defendant Lending 1st needed to produce discovery sufficient for Plaintiffs' counsel to identify absent class members (Dkt. No. 201); and

WHEREAS in November 2010, counsel for Defendant EMC Mortgage LLC ("EMC") and Plaintiffs began meeting and conferring about EMC's desire to take discovery, including depositions, of absent class members; and

WHEREAS on December 13, 2010, the parties filed, and the Court subsequently entered, a Fourth Stipulation and Order for Relief from Case Management Schedule Pursuant to Local Rule 16-2(d) so as to enable the Parties to complete residual discovery, complete the meet-and-confer process as to any remaining discovery disputes, and/or present any unresolved discovery dispute for the Court's resolution (Dckt. No. 249); and

WHEREAS EMC and Plaintiffs were unable to reach an agreement as to whether the discovery of absent class members sought by EMC should occur at all, but they agreed that in no event could such discovery occur until after the class opt-out deadline; and

WHEREAS the December 15, 2010 Fourth Stipulation and Order for Relief from Case Management Schedule Pursuant to Local Rule 16-2(d) stated Plaintiffs expected to file "a motion, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B), for this Court's approval of class notice within the next ten days, likely time period for distribution of notice will be 14 days after Court approval, and return of opt-out requests will be approximately 90 days after the class notice is mailed" (Id.); and

WHEREAS Plaintiffs filed their Motion for Approval of Class Notice on March 15, 2011 (Dckt. No. 250); and

WHEREAS class notice was approved on April 13, 2011, and the class opt-out deadline was set for June 27, 2011 (Dckt. No. 253); and

WHEREAS the Fourth Case Management Order also stated "EMC Mortgage Corp. has advised Plaintiffs of its desire to depose a number of absent class members after the expiration of the notice and opt-out period, and Plaintiffs' position is that Defendants should not be permitted to take discovery of absent class members" (Dckt. No. 249); and

WHEREAS after entry of the Fourth Stipulation and Order for Relief from Case Management Schedule Pursuant to Local Rule 16-2(d) the parties continued to meet and confer regarding whether the absent class discovery sought by EMC should be permitted following the opt-out deadline, and Plaintiffs continued to object to such a request; and

WHEREAS on June 24, 2011, after the class notice was mailed and near the close of the opt-out period, EMC and Plaintiffs filed a joint discovery dispute letter before Magistrate Judge Spero regarding discovery of absent class members sought by EMC (Dckt. No. 254); and

WHEREAS on July 29, 2011, Magistrate Judge Spero conducted a telephonic discovery hearing regarding discovery on absent class members, in which he granted EMC's motion in part, and instructed the parties to meet and confer to prepare a joint proposal for limited absent class discovery (Dckt. No. 257); and

WHEREAS on August 5, 2011, Magistrate Judge Spero conducted a status conference regarding the parties' proposal for absent class discovery (Dckt. No. 260); and

WHEREAS after the August 5, 2011, status conference, Magistrate Judge Spero entered an order, stating in pertinent part:

1. [EMC's] motion to take limited discovery of absent class members is Granted.

2. On or before September 19, 2011, Defendants may take up fifteen (15) depositions of absent class members of their choosing.

3. Defendants shall identify the chosen class members on or before August 12, 2011. Defendants shall produce to Plaintiffs' counsel all records relating to the servicing of the loans of the chosen absent class members on or before August 19, 2011.

(Dckt. No. 261); and

WHEREAS Plaintiffs continue to object to absent class discovery and do not waive their right to appeal Magistrate Judge Spero's order permitting such discovery; and

WHEREAS to complete the absent class member discovery provided in Magistrate Judge Spero's Orders as well as any other outstanding discovery requires extending the current fact discovery deadline and adjusting the other case management deadlines accordingly.

THEREFORE, the Parties hereby stipulate to, and request that the Court approve, an extension of the deadlines in the Fourth Stipulation and Order for Relief from Case Management Schedule Pursuant to Local Rule 16-2(d) by extending all deadlines therein by approximately forty-five days, as follows:
