2 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
3 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

4 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

5 Plaintiff(s),

No. C 07-4762 PJH

6 v.

7 TRIAL RULES
8 AND PROCEDURES

9 CHARLES CATHCART,

10 Defendant(s).

11 In order to ensure the orderly and efficient presentation of the evidence at trial, the 12 parties shall adhere to the following rules and procedures unless specifically ordered otherwise
13 by the court.

14 1. EXHIBITS

15 The Case Management and Pretrial Order requires that all exhibits be premarked and 16 tabbed, and that at least two sets of the exhibits be submitted prior to the pretrial conference.
17 One of these sets of each parties' exhibits will be placed on the witness stand for use by each
18 witness during direct and cross-examination.

19 However, for cases in which the number of exhibits from any party exceed one hundred,
20 all parties shall additionally prepare separate binders containing the exhibits that will be used
21 during the direct and cross examination of each witness. Binders shall be provided to each
22 witness, to opposing counsel and to the court as each witness is called to testify.

23 With regard to those exhibits not included in the pretrial exchange (e.g. rebuttal 24 exhibits), the parties shall have sufficient copies for the witness, opposing counsel and the 25 court at the time of their introduction. Exhibits to be used for demonstrative (illustrative)
26 purposes only will not be admitted as evidence and shall be shown to opposing counsel at 27 least 24 hours prior to their use at trial. Exhibits about which no testimony is elicited at trial,
28 will not be admitted as evidence.

1 2. WITNESSES

2 (a) Counsel shall have their witnesses review, prior to taking the stand, all exhibits
3 which counsel intends to question the witness about during direct examination.

4 (b) Only one lawyer for each party may examine any one witness.

5 (c) Counsel shall not approach a witness without first obtaining leave of court.

6 (d) Counsel shall refrain from eliciting testimony regarding undisputed facts set forth
7 in the parties' Pretrial Statement(s). If the case is being tried before a jury, the court will read
8 the undisputed facts from the Pretrial Statement(s) at the appropriate time as determined by 9 counsel.

10 (e) If counsel intends to have a witness either draw diagrams, or put markings on 11 visual exhibits or diagrams prepared by the party calling the witness, the witness shall do so
12 before taking the stand. Once on the stand, the witness shall adopt the diagrams and/or 13 markings and explain what they represent. If the diagram or visual exhibit is prepared by the 14 opposing party, the witness shall not make any markings on the diagram or exhibit unless 15 requested to do so by the opposing party.

16 (f) Counsel are expected to have sufficient witnesses ready to testify each trial day.
17 Any gaps in trial time occasioned by the failure to have a witness ready shall be counted
18 toward the party's allocated trial time in cases where the parties have been allocated a specific
19 amount of trial time pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 16(c)(15) and General Signal v. MCI
20 Telecommunications Corp., 66 F. 3d 1500 (9th Cir. 1995). Counsel are expected to cooperate
21 with each other in the scheduling and production of witnesses. Witnesses may be taken out
22 of order if necessary. Every effort shall be made to avoid calling a witness twice.

23 (g) When the court recesses each day, counsel shall inform opposing counsel of 24 which witnesses counsel intend to call during the next trial day.

25 3. DEPOSITIONS

26 The deposition of an adverse party may be used for any purpose. The deposition of a
27 witness not a party may be used for impeachment or if the witness is unavailable as described 28 in Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a)(3). If the deposition is being used for impeachment, it is

1 unnecessary to ask the witness if he/she recalls the testimony or otherwise lay a foundation.
2 Simply identify the deposition, page and line numbers--so that opposing counsel may review
3 the deposition to determine if the identified excerpt is in fact impeaching--and read the relevant
4 portion. Opposing counsel may then immediately ask to read any additional testimony that is
5 necessary to complete the context.

6 If a deposition is introduced because a witness or party is unavailable, do not offer the 7 deposition wholesale; rather, counsel shall only offer copies of the relevant portions of the 8 transcript, which may be read into the record at jury trials or may be submitted to the court for 9 its review at court trials. If submitted to the court for review, the submission shall be made
10 jointly and the excerpts selected by each party shall be highlighted in a different color.

11 4. OBJECTIONS

12 To make an objection, counsel shall rise, say "objection," and briefly state the legal 13 ground (e.g. "hearsay," "irrelevant"). There shall be no "speaking objections" or argument from 14 either counsel unless requested by the court.

15 5. SIDEBARS

16 Bench conferences during jury trials will be permitted only for truly extenuating
17 circumstances. All matters of substantial evidentiary importance must be raised by motion in 18 limine so that they may be resolved prior to trial. Disputes regarding witnesses or exhibits will 19 be resolved, to the extent possible, at the pretrial conference. If any other disputes will be 20 addressed either before the trial day commences, during a recess, or at the end of the trial
21 day. Counsel are expected to assist the court in ensuring that there is a minimum amount of 22 "down time" for the jury. Trial hours will be between 8:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. with two fifteen
23 minute breaks, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

24 6. MOTIONS

25 After trial commences, no written motions shall be filed except with leave of court.

26 IT IS SO ORDERED.
