8 KATHLEEN HANNI, et al.,

No. C-08-00732 CW (EDL)

9 Plaintiffs,

ADDENDUM TO APRIL 17 ORDER
DENYING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO SHORTEN TIME

10 v.

11 AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC.,

12 Defendant.
13 _____/

14 On April 15, 2009, Plaintiffs filed a motion to enlarge time to complete class certification
15 discovery. They sought shortened time on that motion, which the Court denied. On May 1, 2009,
16 Plaintiffs faxed a letter to chambers indicating that they are unclear as to whether the scheduling of 17 their motion to enlarge time, set for hearing on May 19, 2009, implicitly granted an extension of the 18 May 4, 2009 class certification motion deadline.

19 The Court notes that Plaintiffs have been less than clear about their requests. While 20 Plaintiffs note that the class certification motion deadline is May 4, 2009, this deadline does not 21 appear in the scheduling order; nor is it referred to in Plaintiffs' motion to enlarge time. Plaintiffs
22 are also unclear as to what relief they seek in their motion to enlarge time. In that motion, Plaintiffs 23 ask that the scheduling order be modified to extend class certification discovery, noting "all other 24 dates in the scheduling order, including the trial date, would remain as currently scheduled." Mot. at 25 2. However, while their motion itself appears to seek no other relief, Plaintiffs state at the 26 conclusion of their memorandum of law that the "Court should modify the current Scheduling Order
27 . . . and extend discovery for class action issues and for Plaintiffs to file a class certification motion
28 by 40 days, or to such an extent the court deems reasonable under the circumstances"

The above ambiguities aside, regardless of whether the Court extends the discovery cutoff

1 when it decides Plaintiffs' motion on May 19, it will also set a briefing schedule for class
2 certification motions. In the interim, Plaintiffs need not file their class certification motion by 3 May 4.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
