Re: Lewis, et al. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.
U.S. District Court, Northern District of California Case No. CV-08-2670
CW

Dear Judge Spero:

On April 1, 2009, a Notice of Association of Counsel was filed in the above matter, in which Joan B. Tucker Fife and Winston & Strawn LLP were associated as counsel of record for Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo"). Henceforth, Ms. Fife will be acting as Lead Trial Counsel in this matter for Wells Fargo.

In light of this Court's March 31, 2009 Order (at ¶ 2) in which "lead trial counsel" for both parties were directed to meet and confer in person regarding the outstanding discovery disputes, Wells Fargo intends for Ms. Fife, rather than Mr. Freudenberger (of Carlton DiSante & Freudenberger LLP), to attend the in person meeting with lead trial counsel for Plaintiffs.

Because the Court's Order references lead trial counsel both by title and by name, Wells Fargo respectfully submits this letter to obtain this Court's approval of this change with respect to attending the in-person meeting between lead trial counsel on April 8th or 9th.

Respectfully submitted,

Alison L. Tsao
