Case No. 08-04144 SBA

[PROPOSED] AMENDED STIPULATED PROTECTIVE
 ORDER

1 To expedite the flow of discovery materials, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes 2 over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are 3 entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that only materials the parties are entitled to keep 4 confidential are subject to such treatment, and to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonably 5 necessary uses of such materials in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, pursuant to Fed. R.
6 Civ. P. 26(c), it is HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

7 INFORMATION SUBJECT TO THIS ORDER

8 Discovery materials produced in this case may be labeled as one of three categories:
9 CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY and RESTRICTED
10 CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE, as set forth in Items A-C below. All three of the identified 11 categories of information shall be identified collectively in this Order by the title "Protected 12 Information." Any documents derived from or containing "Protected Information" must also be 13 designated with the appropriate category of confidentiality, according to the terms of this Order.
14 Any discovery materials produced in this lawsuit as CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL 15 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE may be 16 used only for purposes of this litigation.

17 A. Information Designated as "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION"

18 1. For purposes of this Order, "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION" shall mean all 19 information or material produced for or disclosed to a Requesting Party that the Producing Party, 20 including any party to this action and any non-party producing information or material voluntarily 21 or pursuant to a subpoena or a court order, considers to constitute or to contain trade secrets or 22 other confidential research and development, technical, sales, marketing, financial, personnel, 23 customer, vendor, or other commercial information, whether embodied in physical objects, 24 documents, or the factual knowledge of persons, and which has been so designated by the 25 Producing Party.

26 2. Any document or tangible thing containing or including any CONFIDENTIAL
27 INFORMATION may be designated as such by the Producing Party by marking it 28 "CONFIDENTIAL" prior to or at the time copies are furnished to the Requesting Party.

1 3. All CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION not reduced to documentary, tangible or 2 physical form or which cannot be conveniently designated as set forth in paragraph 2, shall be 3 designated by the Producing Party by informing the Requesting Party of the designation in 4 writing.

5 4. Except as otherwise provided elsewhere in this protective order and/or in any 6 supplemental protective order entered in this matter, any documents (including physical objects) 7 made available for inspection by counsel for the Requesting Party prior to producing copies of 8 selected items shall initially be considered, as a whole, to constitute CONFIDENTIAL 9 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY information and shall be subject to this Order. Thereafter, the 10 Producing Party shall have a reasonable time to review and designate the appropriate documents
11 as CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY or RESTRICTED 12 CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE prior to furnishing copies to the Requesting Party.

13 5. The following are examples of information that is not CONFIDENTIAL 14 INFORMATION:

- 15 a. Published advertising materials;
- 16 b. Any information which is or, after its disclosure to a Requesting Party, 17 becomes part of the public domain as a result of publication not involving a violation of this 18 Order;
- 19 c. Any information that the Requesting Party can show by written records 20 was already known to it prior to the disclosure, provided that it was either 1) received from the 21 Producing Party and was not received under an obligation of confidentiality to the Producing 22 Party, or 2) received from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no 23 obligation of confidentiality to the Producing Party;
- 24 d. Any information which the Requesting Party can show by written 25 records was received by it after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information 26 lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Producing Party; and

1 e. Any information which the Requesting Party can show was 2 independently developed by it after the time of disclosure by personnel who did not have access 3 to the Producing Party's CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

4 6. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL and information contained therein shall 5 be available only to:

6 a. Outside litigation counsel of record and supporting personnel employed 7 in or by the law firm(s) of outside litigation counsel of record, such as attorneys, paralegals, legal 8 translators, legal secretaries, legal clerks, commercial copy vendors, and shorthand reporters;

9 b. Technical advisers and their necessary support personnel, subject to the 10 provisions of paragraphs 15-20 herein, and who have signed the form attached hereto as 11 Attachment A;

12 c. Up to two (2) in-house counsel with responsibility for managing this 13 litigation, and up to five (5) non-attorney officers, directors, and employees to whom disclosure is 14 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the form attached hereto as 15 Attachment A;

16 d. The Court, its personnel and stenographic reporters (under seal or with 17 other suitable precautions determined by the Court);

18 e. Independent legal translators retained to translate in connection with this 19 action; independent stenographic reporters and videographers retained to record and transcribe
20 testimony in connection with this action;

21 f. Graphics, translation, or design services retained by counsel for purposes 22 of preparing demonstrative or other exhibits for deposition, trial, or other court proceedings in the 23 action; non-technical jury or trial consulting services, not including mock jurors, who have signed
24 the form attached hereto as Attachment A; and 25 g. With respect to a particular document, an individual who is shown on the 26 face of the document to have been an author, source, or recipient of the document.

27
28

1 B. Information Designated “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY”

2 7. The CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY designation is reserved for 3 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that constitutes commercially sensitive competitive 4 information, the disclosure of which is likely to cause harm to the competitive position of the 5 Producing Party; CONFIDENTIAL information obtained from a nonparty pursuant to a current 6 Nondisclosure Agreement ("NDA"); and settlement agreements or settlement communications. In 7 determining whether information should be designated as CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' 8 EYES ONLY, each party agrees to use such designation only in good faith.

9 8. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY and 10 information contained therein shall be available only to:

11 a. Outside litigation counsel of record and supporting personnel employed 12 in the law firm(s) of outside litigation counsel of record, such as attorneys, paralegals, legal 13 translators, legal secretaries, legal clerks, commercial copy vendors, and shorthand reporters;

14 b. Technical advisers and their necessary support personnel, subject to the 15 provisions of paragraphs 15-20 herein, who have signed the form attached hereto as Attachment 16 A;

17 c. The Court, its personnel and stenographic reporters (under seal or with 18 other suitable precautions determined by the Court);

19 d. Independent legal translators retained to translate in connection with this 20 action; independent stenographic reporters and videographers retained to record and transcribe
21 testimony in connection with this action;

22 e. Graphics, translation, or design services retained by counsel for purposes 23 of preparing demonstrative or other exhibits for deposition, trial, or other court proceedings in the 24 action; non-technical jury or trial consulting services, not including mock jurors, who have signed
25 the form attached hereto as Attachment A; and 26 f. With respect to a particular document, an individual who is shown on the 27 face of the document to have been an author, source, or recipient of the document.

28

1 C. Information Designated “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE”

2 9. Documents or other things that are designated CONFIDENTIAL
3 INFORMATION and contain a party's source code may be designated "RESTRICTED 4 CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE", if they comprise or include confidential, proprietary and/or 5 trade secret computer code in source or other human-readable form (hereinafter “source code”).
6 Nothing in this Order shall obligate the parties to produce any source code or act as an admission 7 that any particular source code is discoverable. However, if material designated as 8 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE is produced, it shall be subject to the 9 following provisions.

10 10. Any source code produced shall be produced as it is used or kept in the ordinary 11 course of business, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, provided, however, that said source 12 code must be produced in searchable format.

13 11. Only those individuals identified in Paragraph 8 of this Order shall be permitted to 14 participate in the inspection of or otherwise review information designated as “RESTRICTED 15 CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE.”

16 12. The Producing Party shall make materials designated as RESTRICTED 17 CONFIDENTIAL —SOURCE CODE available for inspection in electronic format at the 18 Redwood City office of Fish & Richardson P.C. (in the case of production by Google) or at the 19 Palo Alto office of Morrison & Foerster LLP (in the case of production by Netlist). Such 20 inspection of materials designated as RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL —SOURCE CODE is 21 subject to the following requirements:

22 a. Said source code shall be made available during regular business hours 23 (weekdays, 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. local time) on 24 hours notice. Notices requesting inspection 24 shall include a list of names of persons who will view the source code. Access from 6:00 p.m.
25 through 10:00 p.m. local time on weekdays shall be provided so long as notice of such need is 26 provided to the Producing Party not later than 4:00 p.m. local time on the preceding day. Access 27 will also be provided on Saturdays and Sundays from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. local time, so long as 28 notice is provided to the Producing Party not later than 12:00 p.m. on the Friday before the

1 weekend for which access is required. For purposes of this subparagraph, notice is complete 2 upon the sending of an e-mail requesting inspection or upon actual notice via mail. E-mail notice 3 must be sent to each lawyer and paralegal appearing on a list provided by the other party to 4 receive such notice.

5 b. Materials designated as RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL —SOURCE
6 CODE shall be made available by the Producing Party to the Requesting Party’s outside counsel
7 and/or Technical Advisors in a private room on a secured computer (“Source Code Computer”) 8 without Internet access or network access to other computers, as necessary and appropriate to 9 prevent and protect against any unauthorized copying, transmission, removal or other transfer of 10 any source code outside or away from the Source Code Computer. The Producing Party shall be 11 obligated to install such tools or programs as necessary to review and search the code produced 12 on the platform produced. The Requesting Party's outside counsel and/or Technical Advisers 13 may install on the Source Code Computer commercially available licensed software tools for 14 viewing and searching source code.

15 c. The Producing Party shall provide two “stand-alone” computers for use 16 by the Requesting Party. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Requesting Party may 17 also bring with it laptop computers. The Producing Party shall provide either wired or wireless 18 internet access.

19 d. The Requesting Party’s outside counsel and/or Technical Advisors shall 20 be entitled to take notes relating to the source code but may not copy substantial portions (i.e., no 21 more than three consecutive lines and no more than thirty cumulative lines) of the source code 22 into the notes. No copies of the source code may leave the room in which the source code is 23 inspected except as otherwise provided herein, and no other written or electronic record of the 24 source code is permitted except as otherwise provided herein. Other than as provided explicitly 25 in this Order, the Requesting Party shall not transmit any source code in any way from the 26 Producing Party’s inspection room.

27 e. The Producing Party shall make available a laser printer with 28 commercially reasonable printing speeds for on-site printing during inspection of the code. The

1 Requesting Party may print portions of the code as necessary to facilitate the Requesting Party's 2 preparation of the case, including but not limited to when necessary to prepare any filing with the 3 Court or to serve any pleadings or other papers on any other party; to prepare internal attorney 4 work product materials; or to prepare other necessary case materials such as testifying expert 5 reports, consulting expert written analyses, and related drafts and correspondence.

6 f. Any pages printed by the Requesting Party shall be Bates numbered and 7 labeled "RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE", and shall be printed in duplicate, 8 with one Bates numbered printout provided to the Producing Party.

9 g. The Requesting Party may make additional paper copies of source code 10 printed pursuant to paragraph 12(f), not including copies attached to court filings, as reasonably 11 necessary to facilitate the Requesting Party's preparation of the case. The Requesting Party shall 12 maintain a log of all copies of the source code that are provided to any person qualified under 13 Paragraph 8 above. The log shall include the names of the recipients and reviewers of copies and 14 locations where the copies are stored. The log shall be provided by the Requesting Party to the 15 Producing Party at the conclusion of this litigation. If the Producing Party believes in good faith 16 that it needs to inspect the log during the pendency of the litigation, it shall request production of 17 the log from the Requesting Party. If the Requesting Party declines to produce the log, the 18 Producing Party may move the Court for an order compelling such production. In any such 19 motion, it shall be the Producing Party's burden to demonstrate that its need for access to the log 20 outweighs the Receiving Party's interest in protecting privilege or work product immunity, to the 21 extent that either applies.

22 h. The Producing Party may observe all entrances and exits from the source 23 code viewing room, but shall not otherwise monitor the Receiving Party during its review of 24 source code.

25 i. Beginning one week prior to the beginning of trial and continuing 26 through the end of trial, access to source code made available for inspection under this Order shall 27 be provided at counsel for the Producing Party in Oakland, California, under the same conditions 28 and with the same limitations and restrictions as provided herein.

1 j. Provided that it complies with Paragraph 25 of this Order, the 2 Requesting Party may include excerpts of source code in a pleading, exhibit, expert report, 3 discovery document, deposition transcript, other Court document, or any drafts of these 4 documents (“Source Code Documents”). The Requesting Party shall only include such excerpts 5 as are reasonably necessary for the purposes for which such part of the source code is used. To 6 the extent portions of source code are quoted in a Source Code Document, either (1) the entire 7 document will be stamped and treated as RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE or 8 (2) those pages containing quoted source code will be separately bound, and stamped and treated 9 as RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE.

10 k. The Requesting Party (including its outside counsel of record and/or 11 Technical Advisers) shall maintain and store any paper copies of the source code in a manner that 12 prevents duplication of or unauthorized access to the source code, including, without limitation, 13 storing the source code in a locked room or cabinet at all times when it is not in use. Subject to 14 the provisions of this Order, paper copies of source code may be stored by any person authorized 15 to review materials under Paragraph 8 at that person’s place of business or home office.

16 l. Except as provided in this sub-paragraph 10(l), the Requesting Party 17 may not create electronic images, or any other images, of the source code from a paper copy for 18 use on a computer (e.g., may not scan the source code to a PDF, or photograph the code). The 19 Requesting Party may create an electronic copy or image of selected portions of the source code 20 only when reasonably necessary to prepare any filing with the Court or to serve any pleadings or 21 other papers on any other party; to prepare internal attorney work product materials; or to prepare 22 other necessary case materials such as testifying expert reports, consulting expert written 23 analyses, and related drafts and correspondences. Images or copies of source code shall not be 24 included in correspondence between the parties (references to production numbers shall be used 25 instead) and shall be omitted from pleadings and other papers except to the extent permitted 26 herein. The Requesting Party may create an electronic image of portions of relevant source code 27 files produced by the Producing Party (or copies thereof) only when the electronic file containing 28 such image has been encrypted using commercially reasonable encryption software including

1 password protection; pleadings, briefs, and other work product containing excerpts of source code 2 need not be encrypted. The communication and/or disclosure of electronic files containing any 3 portion of source code shall at all times be limited to individuals who are authorized to see source 4 code under the provisions of this Protective Order. Electronic copies of source code (excluding 5 excerpts contained in pleadings, briefs and other work product) shall be included on the log 6 required in sub-paragraph 12(g). All electronic copies must be labeled "RESTRICTED
7 CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE."

8 m. Subject to Paragraph 25 and other applicable provisions of this Order, 9 the Producing Party agrees to make source code available at those depositions where the 10 Requesting Party requests such source code to be available.

11 PROSECUTION BAR

12 13. "PROSECUTION BAR" materials refers to materials produced in this lawsuit and 13 designated as CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY or RESTRICTED 14 CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE. However, the following documents and materials shall 15 not be considered or classified as PROSECUTION BAR materials: (i) publicly available 16 publications, including patents and published patent applications; (ii) materials regarding third 17 party systems or products that were publicly known, on sale, or in public use; (iii) information 18 that is otherwise publicly available; and (iv) documents and information related solely to damages 19 or reasonably royalty rates.

20 14. Any person reviewing any PROSECUTION BAR materials produced by any party 21 shall not, for a period commencing upon receipt of such information and ending one year
22 following the conclusion of this case (including any appeals) engage in any PROSECUTION 23 ACTIVITY on behalf of a party in this case or any successor in ownership of such party, or any 24 assignee or exclusive licensee of a patent. PROSECUTION ACTIVITY shall mean: (1) prepare 25 and/or prosecute or otherwise aid in preparing or prosecuting any patent application (or portion 26 thereof); (2) prepare or otherwise aid in the drafting or amending of patent claim(s); (3) for a 27 patent application, interference, or reissue proceeding, participate on behalf of a party in this case 28 or any successor in ownership of such party, or any assignee or exclusive licensee of a patent

1 asserted in this case, or (4) provide advice, counsel or suggestions regarding claim scope and/or 2 language, embodiment(s) for claim coverage, claim(s) for prosecution, or products or processes 3 for coverage by claim(s), where each of (1) – (4) applies to any patent application (or portion 4 thereof), whether design or utility, and either in the United States or abroad, any reissue 5 application or proceeding, any opposition, or any interference of any patent or patent application 6 on behalf of a party in this case or any successor in ownership of such party, or any assignee or 7 exclusive licensee of a patent asserted in this case. Nothing in this section shall be construed as 8 preventing any attorney from challenging the validity or enforceability of any patent, including 9 without limitation in proceedings in this court or reexamination or reissue proceedings in the 10 United States or foreign patent offices. The parties expressly agree that the PROSECUTION
11 BAR set forth herein shall be personal to any attorney who reviews PROSECUTION BAR 12 material and shall not be imputed to any other persons or attorneys at the attorney's law firm or 13 company. Attorneys and staff involved in patent prosecution of claims involving methods, 14 apparatus, or systems for computer research tools for indexing, searching and/or displaying data 15 on the Internet and/or through a network shall be ethically walled, in those matters, from 16 attorneys and staff who review PROSECUTION BAR materials. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 17 the mere fact of a first attorney sending or communicating Prior Art to a second attorney, where 18 the second attorney is involved in PROSECUTION ACTIVITY shall not be construed as 19 involvement by the first attorney in PROSECUTION ACTIVITY. Prior Art shall mean (i) 20 publications, including patents and published patent applications; and (ii) materials or information 21 regarding third party systems or products that were publicly known, on sale, or in public use 22 before May 4, 1998, unless such materials are designated as PROSECUTION BAR materials by 23 such third party. This section does not apply to any attorney, patent agent, or other person 24 participating in any re-examination proceedings if such attorney, patent agent, or other person has 25 not reviewed the other party's Discovery Material designated CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' 26 EYES ONLY or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE.

1 DISCLOSURE OF TECHNICAL ADVISERS

2 15. Information designated by the Producing Party under any category of Protected 3 Information and such copies of this information as are reasonably necessary for maintaining, 4 defending or evaluating this litigation may be furnished and disclosed to the Requesting Party's 5 technical advisers and their necessary support personnel. The term "technical adviser" shall mean 6 an independent, outside expert witness or consultant to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary 7 for this litigation and who complies with applicable provisions of this Order.

8 16. No disclosure of Protected Information to a technical adviser or their necessary 9 support personnel shall occur until that person has accurately completed and signed the form 10 attached hereto as Attachment A, and a signed copy has been provided to the Producing Party; 11 and to the extent there has been an objection under paragraph 18, that objection is resolved as 12 discussed below.

13 17. A party desiring to disclose Protected Information to a technical adviser shall also 14 give prior written notice to the Producing Party, who shall have seven (7) business days after such 15 notice is given to object in writing. The party desiring to disclose Protected Information to a 16 technical adviser must provide the following information for each technical adviser: name, 17 address, curriculum vitae, current employer, and employment (including consulting) history for 18 the past four (4) years, and a listing of cases in which the witness has testified as an expert at trial 19 or by deposition within the preceding four years. No Protected Information shall be disclosed to 20 such expert(s) or consultant(s) until after the expiration of the foregoing notice period.

21 18. A party objecting to disclosure of Protected Information to a technical adviser 22 shall state with particularity the ground(s) of the objection and the specific categories of 23 documents that are the subject of the objection. The objecting party's consent to the disclosure of 24 Protected Information to a technical adviser shall not be unreasonably withheld.

25 19. If after consideration of the objection, the party desiring to disclose the Protected 26 Information to a technical adviser refuses to withdraw the technical adviser, that party shall 27 provide notice to the objecting party. Thereafter, the party seeking disclosure shall move the 28 Court, within seven (7) business days of giving such notice, for a ruling on the objection. A

1 failure to file a motion within the seven (7) business day period shall operate as a withdrawal of 2 the technical adviser. Although the party seeking disclosure bears the burden of moving the 3 Court for a ruling on the objection, the objecting party retains the burden of proof as set forth in 4 Paragraph 20. The parties agree to cooperate in good faith to shorten the time frames set forth in 5 this paragraph if necessary to abide by any discovery or briefing schedules.

6 20. The objecting party shall have the burden of showing to the Court that the risk of 7 harm that the disclosure would entail (under any safeguards proposed) outweighs the Requesting 8 Party's need to disclose the Protected Information to its technical adviser. Moreover, failure to 9 object to a Technical Adviser shall not preclude the non-objecting party from later objecting to 10 continued access by that Technical Adviser where facts suggesting a basis for objection could not 11 have been discovered by the objecting party or its counsel, exercising due diligence, within the 12 period for making a timely objection. A later objection to a Technical Advisor cannot be made 13 on the basis of information disclosed pursuant to Paragraphs 17-18, except to the extent that said
14 disclosure contained a material omission or misrepresentation. If a later objection is made, no 15 further Protected Information shall be disclosed to the Technical Adviser until the matter is 16 resolved by the court or the Producing Party withdraws its objection. If a later objection is made, 17 the parties shall meet and confer within three (3) business days; and, if not resolved, the 18 Producing Party may move for a protective order precluding the disclosure of the Protected 19 Information to the Technical Adviser within two (2) business days after the meet and confer.

20 CHALLENGES TO CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

21 21. The parties shall use reasonable care when designating documents or information 22 as Protected Information. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a Requesting Party from contending 23 that any documents or information designated as Protected Information have been improperly 24 designated. Unless prompt challenge is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, 25 unnecessary economic burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a 26 Requesting Party may at any time request that the Producing Party cancel or modify the Protected 27 Information designation with respect to any document or information contained therein 28

1 22. A party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a designation of any 2 category of Protected Information at the time of production, and a failure to do so shall not 3 preclude a subsequent challenge thereto. Such a challenge shall be written, shall be served on 4 counsel for the Producing Party, and shall particularly identify the documents or information that 5 the Requesting Party contends should be differently designated. The parties shall use their best 6 efforts to resolve promptly and informally such disputes. If an agreement cannot be reached, the 7 Requesting Party will bear the burden of requesting that the Court cancel or modify a designation.
8 The burden of demonstrating the confidential nature of any information shall at all times be and 9 remain on the designating party.

10 23. Until a determination by the Court, the information in issue shall be treated as 11 having been properly designated and subject to the terms of this Order.

12 LIMITATIONS ON THE USE OF PROTECTED INFORMATION

13 24. All Protected Information shall be held in confidence by each person to whom it is 14 disclosed, shall be used only as allowed by the terms of this protective order, shall not be used for 15 any business purpose, and shall not be disclosed to any person who is not entitled to receive such 16 information as herein provided. All produced Protected Information shall be carefully maintained 17 so as to preclude access by persons who are not entitled to receive such information. Protected 18 Information of one defendant shall not be shown to another defendant's technical adviser without 19 prior consent of Producing Party.

20 25. Except as may be otherwise ordered by the Court, any person may be examined as 21 a witness at depositions and trial and may testify concerning all Protected Information of which 22 such person has prior knowledge. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing:

23 a. A present or former director, officer, employee of a Producing Party, 24 may be examined and may testify at deposition or trial concerning all Protected Information 25 which has been produced by that party and either (1) identifies on its face the director, officer, 26 and/or employee as an author or recipient, (2) concerns a subject matter of which the director, 27 officer and/or employee has knowledge or (3) concerns a topic about which said director, officer, 28 and/or employee has been identified or designated to testify.

1 b. Non-parties may be examined or testify at deposition or trial concerning 2 any document containing Protected Information of a Producing Party which appears on its face or 3 from other documents or testimony to have been received from or communicated to the non-party 4 as a result of any contact or relationship with the Producing Party or a representative of the 5 Producing Party, but may not retain originals or copies of such Protected Information or any notes
6 or transcripts reflecting such Protected Information, other than for the limited period of time 7 necessary to review any deposition transcripts and make corrections. Any person other than the 8 witness, his or her attorney(s), or any person qualified to receive Protected Information under this 9 Order shall be excluded from the portion of the examination concerning such information, unless 10 the Producing Party consents to persons other than qualified recipients being present at the 11 examination. If the witness is represented by an attorney who is not qualified under this Order to 12 receive such information, then prior to the examination, the Producing Party shall request that the 13 attorney provide a signed statement, in the form of Attachment A hereto, that he or she will 14 comply with the terms of this Order and maintain the confidentiality of Protected Information 15 disclosed during the course of the examination. In the event that such attorney declines to sign 16 such a statement prior to the examination, the parties, by their attorneys, shall jointly seek a 17 protective order from the Court prohibiting the attorney from disclosing Protected Information.

18 26. All transcripts of depositions, exhibits, answers to interrogatories, pleadings, 19 briefs, and other documents submitted to the Court that have been designated as Protected 20 Information or which contain information so designated, shall be filed under seal in a manner 21 prescribed by the Court for such filings.

22 27. Outside attorneys of record for the parties are hereby authorized to be the persons 23 who may retrieve confidential exhibits and/or other confidential matters filed with the Court upon 24 termination of this litigation without further order of this Court, and are the persons to whom such 25 confidential exhibits or other confidential matters may be returned by the Clerk of the Court, if 26 they are not so retrieved. No material or copies thereof so filed shall be released to outside 27 counsel of record except by order of the Court or as otherwise provided for hereunder.
28 Notwithstanding the foregoing and with regard to material designated as RESTRICTED

1 CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE, the provisions of Section C (titled “Information
2 Designated Restricted Confidential – Source Code”) are controlling to the extent those provisions 3 of Section C differ from this paragraph.

4 28. Protected Information shall not be copied or otherwise produced by a Requesting 5 Party, except for transmission to qualified recipients, without the written permission of the 6 Producing Party, or, in the alternative, by further order of the Court. Nothing herein shall, 7 however, restrict a qualified recipient from making working copies, abstracts, digests and 8 analyses of Protected Information for use in connection with this litigation and such working 9 copies, abstracts, digests and analyses shall be deemed Protected Information under the terms of 10 this Order. Further, nothing herein shall restrict a qualified recipient from converting or 11 translating Protected Information (other than RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE 12 CODE material) into machine readable form for incorporation into a data retrieval system used in 13 connection with this action, provided that access to that Protected Information, in whatever form 14 stored or reproduced, shall be limited to qualified recipients.

15 29. At the request of any party, the original and all copies of any deposition transcript, 16 in whole or in part, shall be marked "CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES 17 ONLY and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE" by the reporter. This 18 request may be made orally during the deposition or in writing within twenty-one (21) days of 19 receipt of the final certified transcript. Deposition transcripts shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL
20 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY until the expiration of the time to make a confidentiality 21 designation. Any portions so designated shall thereafter be treated in accordance with the terms of 22 this Order.

23 30. Where Protected Information is used at trial, it is the burden of the Designating 24 Party whose documents or materials are being used to make arrangements with the Court to 25 ensure that its Protected Information remains confidential; however, where Protected Information 26 is to be used at trial by a party other than the Designating Party, the Designating Party must be 27 notified at least 10 days before trial, so that the Designating Party is able to make arrangements 28 with the Court to ensure that its Protected Information remains confidential.

1 materials. The recipient(s) shall gather and return all copies of the privileged or immune material
2 to the Producing Party, except for any pages containing privileged markings by the recipient, 3 which pages shall instead be destroyed and certified as such by the recipient to the Producing 4 Party. Nothing herein shall prevent the Requesting Party from challenging the propriety of the 5 attorney-client privilege or work product immunity or other applicable privilege or immunity 6 designation (based on information independent of the snapped-back content of the allegedly 7 privileged materials in question) by submitting a written challenge to the Court. Notwithstanding 8 this provision, no person is required to delete information that may reside on the respective 9 person's electronic back-up systems that are over-written in the normal course of business.
10

11 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

12
13 36. Any of the notice requirements herein may be waived, in whole or in part, but only 14 in writing signed by an outside counsel of record for the party against whom such waiver will be 15 effective.

16 37. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents or things containing 17 Protected Information which are not designated as one or more of the three categories of 18 Protected Information at the time of production shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part 19 of a claim for confidential treatment. The Producing Party shall notify the receiving parties 20 promptly in writing after the discovery of the error and, with respect to documents, provide 21 replacement pages bearing the appropriate confidentiality legend. In the event of any 22 unintentional or inadvertent disclosure of Protected Information other than in a manner authorized 23 by this Protective Order, counsel for the party responsible for the disclosure shall immediately 24 notify opposing counsel of all of the pertinent facts, and make every effort to further prevent 25 unauthorized disclosure, including retrieving all copies of the Protected Information from the 26 recipient(s) thereof, and securing the agreement of the recipients not to further disseminate the 27 Protected Information in any form. Compliance with the foregoing shall not prevent the 28 Producing Party from seeking further relief from the Court.

1 38. Within sixty (60) days after the entry of a final non-appealable judgment or order, 2 or the complete settlement of all claims asserted against all parties in this action, each party shall,
3 at the option of the Requesting Party, either return or destroy all physical objects and documents 4 which embody Protected Information it has received, and shall destroy in whatever form stored or 5 reproduced, all physical objects and documents, including but not limited to, correspondence, 6 memoranda, notes and other work product materials, which contain or refer to any category of 7 Protected Information. All Protected Information not embodied in physical objects and 8 documents shall remain subject to this Order. Notwithstanding this provision, no person is 9 required to delete information that may reside on the respective person's electronic back-up 10 systems that are over-written in the normal course of business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 11 outside counsel shall be entitled to maintain copies of all correspondence, pleadings, motions and 12 trial briefs (including all supporting and opposing papers and exhibits thereto), written discovery 13 requests and responses (and exhibits thereto), deposition transcripts (and exhibits thereto), trial 14 transcripts, and exhibits offered or introduced into evidence at any hearing or trial, and their 15 attorney work product which refers or is related to any CONFIDENTIAL and CONFIDENTIAL
16 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY information for archival purposes only, except such outside counsel
17 shall not retain any RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE materials. If a party 18 destroys Protected Information, the destruction must be by means satisfactory to the Producing 19 Party, and the party must provide a Certificate of Destruction to the Producing Party.

20 39. If at any time documents containing Protected Information are subpoenaed by any 21 court, arbitral, administrative or legislative body, the person to whom the subpoena or other 22 request is directed shall within three (3) business days give written notice thereof to every party 23 who has produced such documents and to its counsel and shall provide each such party with an 24 opportunity to object to the production of such documents. If a Producing Party does not take 25 steps to prevent disclosure of such documents within ten (10) business days of the date written 26 notice is given, the party to whom the referenced subpoena is directed may produce such 27 documents in response thereto.

28

1 40. This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of any party to apply to the 2 Court at any time for additional protection, or to relax or rescind the restrictions of this Order, 3 when convenience or necessity requires. Furthermore, without application to this Court, any party 4 that is a beneficiary of the protections of this Order may enter a written agreement releasing any 5 other party hereto from one or more requirements of this Order even if the conduct subject to the 6 release would otherwise violate the terms herein.

7 41. Nothing in this Order shall restrict any party to this lawsuit or its attorneys from 8 disclosing or using, in any manner and for any purpose, its own Protected Information.

9 42. Nothing in this protective order obligates a party to produce trade secrets, which 10 are neither relevant, nor necessary to prove any claim or defense at trial, such as, by way of 11 example only, infringement based on the Court's claim construction.

12 43. Subject to the restrictions of paragraphs 13-14, nothing in this Protective Order 13 shall bar counsel from rendering advice to his or her client with respect to this litigation and, in 14 the course thereof, relying upon any Protected Materials, provided that counsel does not disclose 15 Protected Materials in a manner not specifically authorized under this Protective Order.

16 44. The United States District Court for the Northern District of California, Oakland 17 Division, is responsible for the interpretation and enforcement of this Agreed Protective Order.
18 After termination of this litigation, the provisions of this Agreed Protective Order shall continue 19 to be binding except with respect to those documents and information that become a matter of 20 public record. This Court retains and shall have continuing jurisdiction over the parties and 21 recipients of the Protected Information for enforcement of the provision of this Agreed Protective 22 Order following termination of this litigation. All disputes concerning Protected Information 23 produced under the protection of this Agreed Protective Order shall be resolved by the United 24 States District Court for the Northern District of California, Oakland Division.

25 45. No party shall be required to identify on its privilege log any document or 26 communication dated on or after and/or created on or after the filing of the lawsuit, which absent 27 this provision, the party would have been obligated to so identify on said privilege log.
28

1 46. Testifying experts shall not be subject to discovery on any draft of their reports in 2 this case and such draft reports, notes, outlines, or any other writings leading up to an issued 3 report(s) in this litigation are exempt from discovery. In addition, all communications to and 4 from a testifying expert, and all materials generated by a testifying expert with respect to that 5 person's work, are exempt from discovery unless relied upon by the expert in forming any 6 opinions in this litigation. No discovery can be taken from any consulting expert except to the 7 extent that consulting expert has provided information, opinions or other materials to a testifying 8 expert, who then relies upon such information, opinions or other materials in forming his final 9 report, trial or deposition testimony or any opinion in this case. Materials, communications and 10 other information exempt from discovery under this Paragraph shall be treated as attorney-work 11 product for the purposes of this litigation and protective order. Nothing in this Paragraph shall be 12 construed to bar discovery from any current or former employees of any of the parties to this 13 lawsuit, or any other persons with knowledge of relevant facts; provided however that their 14 communications with testifying and/or consulting experts will be treated in accordance with this 15 paragraph.
