The Court has discussed the deliberative process privilege in numerous prior orders and incorporates the discussion and analysis of the privilege from these prior orders by reference. (Dkt. Nos. 294, 327, 408, 423, 430, 436, 443, 469). Having reviewed the eight documents submitted for in camera review, the Court sustains the claim of deliberative process privilege with respect to each of the disputed documents listed on Defendant's June 28, 2012 privilege log. The Court finds that these documents are deliberative and that Plaintiffs have not demonstrated a sufficient substantial need to overcome the privilege. Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel is therefore DENIED.

This Order disposes of Docket No. 467.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 31, 2012

JACQUELINE SCOTT CORLEY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
