Plaintiff Kim Muniz and Defendant United Parcel Service, Inc. stipulate as follows:

- 1. Plaintiff shall submit to a mental examination to evaluate the source, nature, and extent of any emotional injuries alleged to have been sustained by Plaintiff.
- 2. The examination will be conducted solely at Defendant’s expense, by Dr. George Woods, on a mutually agreeable future date.
- 3. The examination will last no more than six hours and consist of (1) an oral psychiatric examination of no more than three hours; and (2) written psychological testing of no more than three hours, which shall consist of the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (“MMPI”) II and Word Memory Test.
- 4. The parties have agreed that Plaintiff may tape record the oral examination.
- 5. By stipulating to the examination, Plaintiff does not waive the right to challenge the admissibility of Dr. Woods’ testimony at trial.
