13	DANIEL (DONG YUL) YOON,	) Case No.: C 09-2529 PJH
14	Plaintiff,	STIPULATION EXTENDING PLAINTIFF'S TIME TO FILE FIRST
15	VS.	) AMENDED COMPLAINT

18	Defendants.
19
20	The parties to the above-captioned case are requesting the Court grant an additional 30-day
21	extension of time for plaintiff to file his first amended complaint. Plaintiff's last day to file the first
22	amended complaint is presently October 17, 2009. This would extend his last day to file the first
23	amended complaint until November 16, 2009.
24	Plaintiff has requested this extension in order to provide defendants with new medical
25	information, records, studies, and reports related to the medical condition at issue in this case.
26	Plaintiff will be asking defendants to reconsider their decision to terminate his benefits based upon
27	this new information. It is taking longer than plaintiff had hoped to assemble the information in part
28	because some of it is coming from Canadian medical providers, some of whom have not been
		1

1	moving as promptly as plaintiff would like.	Once the information is obtained, the defendants will
2	then be presented with it. The defendants' response to the information and request for
3	reconsideration may affect what issues are presented in the first amended complaint. This extension
4	will give the parties time to complete these activities before the first amended complaint needs to be
5	filed.
6	The Court is therefore requested to grant the extension agreed to by the parties.
