Perry –

Two questions:

1. In light of Go Daddy's motion for leave to amend filed last week, are you now willing to withdraw your motion to strike Go Daddy's affirmative defenses?
2. If not, are you open to having the two motions heard on the same date? Yours is noticed for August 3 and ours is noticed for August 10. We can prepare a stipulation if you consent.

Perry –

Go Daddy indeed is opposed to your pending motion so a statement of nonopposition is not appropriate here. We will submit opposition papers if necessary.

We asked the question below because your motion is, in view of the motion for leave to amend, effectively moot.

Please do let us know as soon as possible your position on question #2 below. Thanks.

John—after looking into the matter, it appears that the filing of a Civ. L.R. 7-3(b) statement of nonopposition by GoDaddy would be the appropriate procedure for what I understand you are referring to below.
