Case No: C 10-00634 SBA

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART
DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS CORRECTED FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

Docket 65

25 Plaintiff Dalia Rashdan (Mohamed), a former dental student of the Dugoni School of 26 Dentistry ("Dugoni School") at the University of the Pacific ("the University"), alleges that 27 various instructors and administrators discriminated against her on account of her national 28 origin (Egyptian). The Court previously granted Defendants' motion to dismiss the claims brought against the individual Defendants in the original Complaint, with leave to amend.
Plaintiff filed her Corrected First Amended Complaint on January 24, 2011. Dkt. 63.

The parties are presently before the Court on the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Corrected First Amended Complaint and to Enter Final Judgment for the Individual Defendants, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6). Dkt. 65. Having read

1 and considered the papers submitted and the record in this action, and being fully informed, 2 the Court hereby GRANTS IN PART and DENIES IN PART the motion to dismiss, for the 3 reasons that follow. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 78(b) and Civil Local 4 Rule 7-1(b), the Court adjudicates the instant motion without oral argument.

5 I. BACKGROUND

6 A. FACTUAL SUMMARY

7 The parties are familiar with the facts of this case, which the Court discussed in 8 detail in its prior order. Rashdan v. Geissberger, No. C 10-00637 SBA, 2011 WL 197957 9 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 14, 2011), Dkt. 60. In short, Plaintiff was a full-time dental student at the 10 Dugoni School from 2007 to 2009. While there, she allegedly became the subject of 11 discriminatory treatment, principally by Professor Marc Geissberger, D.D.S., Chair of the 12 Department of Restorative Dentistry.¹ The instant conflict apparently began after Plaintiff 13 was unable to adequately treat a patient at the Dugoni School's dental clinic, allegedly 14 prompting Geissberger to remark that Plaintiff was engaging in "Third World Dentistry."
15 Corrected First Am. Compl. ("FAC") ¶ 29. As a foreign dentist and international dentist, 16 Plaintiff was offended by his remark. Id.

17 Thereafter, Geissberger allegedly conspired with the other individual Defendants to 18 ensure Plaintiff's academic failure. Among other things, Plaintiff accuses Geissberger and 19 others of intentionally causing the alteration of her transcripts to incorrectly reflect that she 20 had not taken or completed certain courses. She also claims Geissberger was responsible 21 for the decision by the Student Academic Performance and Promotions Committee 22 ("SAPPC") on June 10, 2009, which voted 13-0 to recommend that Plaintiff not be certified 23 for graduation. Id. ¶¶ 73-82. Though Plaintiff was allowed to continue at the Dugoni 24 School as an extended student, she alleges that Geissberger and others intentionally made it 25 difficult for her to successfully complete her extension program. Id. ¶¶ 114-130.
26 Concluding that she had "no reasonable possibility of getting her D.D.S. degree from the 27

Defendants by last name only.

1 Dugoni School,” she submitted a “Request for Absence from School,” which was accepted.
2 Id. ¶¶ 130-31.

3 B. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

4 On February 12, 2010, Plaintiff filed the instant action alleging eleven claims for 5 relief for: (1) conspiracy to violate her right to equal protection, in violation of 42 U.S.C
6 § 1985(3); (2) violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VI”), 42 U.S.C.
7 § 2000d; (3) violation of the Unruh Act, Cal. Civ. Code § 51; (4) breach of implied 8 contract; (5) breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing; (6) defamation; 9 (7) tortious interference with a contract or advantageous business relationship or 10 expectancy; (8) intentional infliction of emotional distress (“IIED”); (9) fraud; 11 (10) negligent misrepresentation; and (11) negligence. As defendants, Plaintiff named Dr.
12 Geissberger and Dr. Ferrillo, as well as the University, Dr. Eugene LaBarre, Dr. Ai B.
13 Streacker, Dr. Foroud Hakim, Dr. Nader H. Nadershahi, Dr. Leigh Anderson, Dr. Jeff 14 Miles, Mr. Daniel J. Bender, Dr. Lola Giusti, and Dr. Craig Yarborough. Plaintiff seeks 15 compensatory and punitive damages and injunctive relief.

16 Defendants moved to dismiss the claims against the individual Defendants; namely; 17 the first claim for conspiracy under § 1985(3), the second claim under Title VI, the sixth 18 claim for defamation, the seventh claim for tortious interference with contract, the eighth 19 claim for IIED and the eleventh claim for negligence. Dkt. 10. On January 14, 2010, the 20 Court issued its order granting Defendants’ motion in its entirety. Dkt. 60. The Court 21 dismissed Plaintiff’s seventh claim for tortious interference and eighth claim for IIED with 22 prejudice. However, the Court granted Plaintiff leave to amend her claims under § 1985(3), 23 Title VI and for defamation, to correct the deficiencies set forth in the Court’s ruling. The 24 Court also granted Plaintiff leave to amend to substitute the University as a defendant in her 25 eleventh cause of action for negligence. The Court warned that “[i]n the event Plaintiff 26 fails to file an amended complaint within [the specified] time-frame, the § 1985(3), Title 27 VI, defamation and negligence claims will be deemed dismissed with prejudice.” Rashdan, 28 2011 WL 197957, at *12.

1 On January 24, 2011, Plaintiff timely filed her First Amended Complaint, Dkt. 61, 2 which she then replaced with a Corrected First Amended Complaint (“FAC”) on the same 3 day, Dkt. 63. Plaintiff did not amend her second claim under Title VI, but did purport to 4 amend the first claim under § 1985(3), sixth claim for defamation and seventh claim for 5 negligence.² Defendants now move to dismiss the first and sixth claims. In her opposition, 6 Plaintiff does not oppose dismissal of her first claim, but challenges the dismissal of certain 7 aspects of her sixth claim for defamation.

8 II. LEGAL STANDARD

9 Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires that a complaint contain a 10 “short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” Fed.
11 R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2). If a complaint fails to satisfy Rule 8, it “must be dismissed” under Rule 12 12(b)(6) for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Bell Atl. Corp. v.
13 Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). To survive a motion to dismiss, the plaintiff must 14 allege “enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Id. The 15 pleadings must “give the defendant fair notice of what . . . the claim is and the grounds 16 upon which it rests.” Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 93 (2007) (internal quotation marks 17 omitted). “[A] plaintiff’s obligation to provide the ‘grounds’ of his ‘entitlement to relief’ 18 requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic recitation of the elements of a 19 cause of action will not do.” Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555.

20 When considering a Rule 12(b)(6) motion, a court must take the allegations as true 21 and construe them in the light most favorable to plaintiff. See Kniewel v. ESPN, 393 F.3d 22 1068, 1072 (9th Cir. 2005). However, “the tenet that a court must accept as true all of the 23 allegations contained in a complaint is inapplicable to legal conclusions. Threadbare 24 recitals of the elements of a cause of action, supported by mere conclusory statements, do 25 not suffice.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, --- U.S. ---, 129 S. Ct. 1937, 1949-50 (2009). “While legal 26 conclusions can provide the complaint’s framework, they must be supported by factual

27 28 ² Since Plaintiff did not amend her claim under Title VI, that claim is deemed dismissed with prejudice.

1 allegations.” Id. at 1950. Those facts must be sufficient to push the claims “across the line 2 from conceivable to plausible[.]” Id. at 1951 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 557). In the 3 event dismissal is warranted, it is generally without prejudice, unless it is clear the 4 complaint cannot be saved by any amendment. See Sparling v. Daou, 411 F.3d 1006, 1013
5 (9th Cir. 2005); Gompper v. VISX, Inc., 298 F.3d 893, 898 (9th Cir. 2002).

6 III. DISCUSSION

7 A. 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3)

8 The Court previously dismissed Plaintiff’s first claim under § 1985(3) based on her 9 failure to allege facts sufficient to show state action. Rashdan v. Geissberger, No. C 10-10 00637 SBA, 2011 WL 197957, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 14, 2011). In her opposition to the 11 instant motion to dismiss, Plaintiff “concedes that she did not plead state action in the 12 [FAC],” and therefore, proposes that “the Court should GRANT Defendants’ Motion to 13 Dismiss the [FAC] as to the § 1985(3) claim without leave to amend.” Pl.’s Opp’n at 4, 10, 14 15. At the same time, however, Plaintiff indicates that she intends to seek leave to amend 15 her FAC “to include a § 1985(3) claim for conspiracy to deprive Plaintiff of her rights 16 under 42 U.S.C. § 2000d et seq. and California Civil Code § 51,” which allegedly obviates 17 the need to show of state action. Id. at 14-15. To that end, Plaintiff has filed a motion for 18 leave to amend, which is noticed for hearing on July 12, 2011. Dkt. 70. Therefore, in 19 accordance with Plaintiff’s agreement that her first claim, as pled, is subject to dismissal, 20 the Court GRANTS Defendants’ motion. The Court will consider the viability of 21 Plaintiff’s alternate theory of liability under § 1985(3) upon adjudication of her motion for 22 leave amend. To expedite matters, the Court will accelerate the briefing schedule 23 applicable to said motion, as set forth below.

24 B. DEFAMATION

25 The elements of a state law claim for defamation are (1) a publication that is 26 (2) false, (3) defamatory, (4) unprivileged, and (5) has a natural tendency to injure or causes 27 special damage. Cal.Civ.Code §§ 45, 46; Taus v. Loftus, 40 Cal.4th 683, 720 (2007).
28 Plaintiff originally brought her defamation claim against Defendants Geissberger, Hakim,

1 Labarre, Ferrillo, Streacker, Anderson, Miles, Giusti and Bender. In her FAC, Plaintiff has 2 alleged her revised defamation claim only against Geissberger, Labarre and Giusti.

3 Although the FAC alleges several incidents as the bases for Plaintiff's defamation 4 claim against these Defendants, Plaintiff now acknowledges in her opposition that certain 5 of those allegations are infirm and are subject to dismissal. Pl.'s Opp'n at 13-14 ("Plaintiff
6 not having made defamatory statements of fact in the [FAC] regarding statements 7 Defendants GEISSBERGER and LABARRE made to the SAPPC, the Court should 8 GRANT their motion to dismiss as to allegations in ¶ 78 and ¶ 80 in the [FAC].").
9 However, Plaintiff contends that her defamation claim against Defendant Geissberger, 10 Labarre and Giusti, as set forth in paragraphs 43-46 and 103 of the FAC, is viable and 11 should not be dismissed. Id. at 13. The Court therefore focuses its analysis on the disputed 12 aspects of Plaintiff's defamation claim.

13 1. Statements Relating to Transcripts

14 Plaintiff's revised defamation claim against Geissberger, Labarre and Giusti alleges 15 that they were involved in the alteration of her transcripts. She alleges, on information and 16 belief, that:

17 43. Defendant BENDER altered her official transcript to 18 indicate that she received the grade INC (incomplete) for RS 19 379 Clinical Restorative Dentistry III based on Defendant GEISSBERGER's false statement of fact that she had not completed RS 379 Clinical Restorative Dentistry III.

20 44. Defendant BENDER altered her official transcript to 21 indicate that she had not taken RP 396 Clinical Removable 22 Prosthodontics based on Defendant LABARRE's false statement of fact that she had not taken RP 396 Clinical Removable Prosthodontics.

23 45. Defendant BENDER altered her official transcript to 24 indicate that she had not taken DP 317 Patient Management & 25 Production III based on Defendant GIUSTI's false statement of fact that she had not taken DP 317 Patient Management & Production III.

26 46. Defendant BENDER altered her official transcript to 27 indicate that she had not taken DP 320 Preparation for State 28 Licensure based on a false statement of fact made by one or more DOES 1-50 that she had not taken DP 320 Preparation for State Licensure.

FAC ¶¶ 43-46 (emphasis added).

1 Defendants contend that the foregoing allegations are deficient on the ground that 2 they “fail to specify any statement by Dr. Geissberger, Dr. Labarre and/or Dr. Giusti made 3 to Dr. Bender (or any third party) that caused Dr. Bender to make a change to the 4 transcript.” Defs.’ Mot. at 12 (emphasis in original). This contention lacks merit. Where 5 the defamation claim is based on slander, it is sufficient to allege “the substance of the 6 defamatory statement.” Okun v. Superior Court, 29 Cal.3d 442, 458 (1981).³ Here, the 7 allegedly false statement of fact by Defendants is that Plaintiff did not take or complete the 8 dental course when, in fact, she had done so. In addition, the FAC alleges to whom the 9 purportedly slanderous statements were made; to wit, Defendant Bender. This is sufficient 10 to provide Defendants with fair notice of the basis of the claims being alleged against them.
11 Twombly, 550 U.S. at 569-70.⁴

12 As an ancillary matter, Defendants contend that “[t]he Court has already rejected 13 these very allegations on the ground that Plaintiff’s allegations were entirely speculative, 14 and not factual[.]” Defs.’ Mot. at 12. Defendants misapprehend the Court’s ruling.
15 Though Plaintiff had made reference in her opposition to Defendants’ earlier motion to 16 dismiss as to Geissberger, Labarre and Giusti’s allegedly false statements in connection 17 with her transcripts, the Court noted that those allegations were not actually in the 18 Complaint. Rashdan, 2011 WL 197597, at *9. As for the allegations that were, in fact, 19 presented in the pleadings, the Court noted that Plaintiff had merely speculated “that either 20 Bender altered the transcript or that Geissberger, Labarre and Giusti were somehow 21 involved” and that “[i]n the absence of any particular statements made by these 22 individuals, or any showing of publication of such statements to a third party, Plaintiff 23 cannot proceed on her defamation claim” Id. (emphasis added). In her FAC, Plaintiff 24

25 ³ Although the Court applies federal law pleading standards in assessing the 26 sufficiency of a pleading, the standard for dismissal in state court “is highly relevant.”
Church of Scientology of Calif. v. Flynn, 744 F.2d 694, 696 n.2 (9th Cir. 1984).

27 ⁴ Defendants also assert that Plaintiff must allege the time and place of the 28 defamatory statement, but fail to cite any legal authority establishing that such facts must be pled under Rule 8.

1 has now expressly alleged that these Defendants falsely reported that Plaintiff either did not 2 take a particular course or had not completed it successfully. As such, Plaintiff has 3 adequately alleged the substance of the allegedly defamatory statement for pleading 4 purposes.

5 2. Statements Regarding Plaintiff’s Dental Work

6 In addition to the above, Plaintiff alleges that Giusti falsely informed Labarre that 7 Plaintiff received outside assistance in performing her last denture case when, in actuality, 8 she completed such work on her own. This claim is set forth in Paragraph 103, which 9 avers:

10 103. On June 15, 2009, Defendant GIUSTI told Plaintiff 11 RASHDAN that Defendant LABARRE had conveyed to 12 Defendant GIUSTI that Plaintiff RASHDAN’s last complete denture case was not completed by her, but rather that the work was done “by an outside lab or [Plaintiff’s] mother.”

13 Plaintiff RASHDAN did her last complete denture case 14 by herself, and had not had the work done by an outside lab, nor by her mother.

15 FAC ¶¶ 43-46, 103 (emphasis added).

16 Defendants first argue that Plaintiff cannot predicate a defamation claim on a 17 statement communicated to her. Defs.’ Mot. at 13. However, Defendants misinterpret 18 Plaintiff’s allegations, which clearly allege that this claim is based on a statement allegedly 19 made by Labarre to Giusti. Equally erroneous is Defendants’ assertion that the statement at 20 issue is one of opinion as opposed to fact. Plaintiff alleges that Labarre told Giusti that she 21 did not personally complete her last denture case on her own—which plainly is a statement 22 of fact, not opinion. The Court concludes that Defendants’ arguments for dismissing 23 Plaintiff’s defamation claim, as set forth in Paragraphs 43-46 and 103 of the FAC are 24 unavailing.

1 IV. CONCLUSION

2 For the reasons set forth above,

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

4 1. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Corrected First Amended Complaint and to 5 Enter Final Judgment for the Individual Defendants is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED 6 IN PART, as set forth above. The motion is GRANTED as to Plaintiff's first claim for 7 violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) and sixth claim for defamation, insofar it is premised on 8 statements made to the SPCC, and is DENIED in all other respects.

9 2. To expedite resolution of Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to Amend (Dkt. 70), 10 the Court revises the briefing schedule specified in Civil Local Rule 7-3 as follows:

11 a. Any opposition to the motion, which shall be limited to seven (7) 12 pages, shall be filed by no than May 20, 2011. The failure to timely file an 13 opposition may be construed as a consent to the granting of the motion.

14 b. Any reply, which shall be limited to four (4) pages, shall be filed by no 15 later than May 27, 2011.

16 c. The Court, in its discretion, may decide the motion without oral 17 argument, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 78(b), in which case no 18 appearance for the motion will be necessary. The parties are advised to check the 19 Court's website to determine whether a court appearance is required.

20 3. The Case Management Conference currently scheduled for May 10, 2011, is 21 CONTINUED to May 19, 2011 at 2:30 p.m. Prior to the date scheduled for the 22 conference, the parties shall meet and confer and prepare an updated Joint Case 23 Management Conference Statement. The joint statement shall be filed no later than two (2) 24 days prior to the conference and shall comply with the Standing Order for All Judges of the 25 Northern District of California and the Standing Order of this Court. The updated 26 statement must include the parties' suggestions for scheduling this case. Plaintiff shall 27 be responsible for filing the statement as well as for arranging the conference call. All 28

1 parties shall be on the line and shall call (510) 637-3559 at the above indicated date and 2 time.

3 4. This Order terminates Docket 65.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
