On February 13, 2014, at a settlement conference before Magistrate Judge Paul Grewal, the parties in these related cases reached agreement on the terms of a settlement of all of the claims between them. While negotiating the final form of the written settlement agreement, the parties discovered a disagreement with respect to the tax withholding responsibilities of the parties created as a result of the settlement. On June 5, 2014, after attempts to settle the dispute regarding the tax issue failed, Magistrate Judge Grewal issued an order resolving the parties' dispute.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Magistrate Judge Grewal acted pursuant to the term sheet, which provides, "To the extent disagreements arise during [the process of reducing the term sheet to a final writing], those disagreements will be resolved by Judge Paul Grewal; this resolution shall be final and non-appealable." Case No. 11-6121; Docket No. 501-4 at 4.
