In the interests of judicial economy and the administration of justice,
IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT prior to filing any motion or non-stipulated request, the parties (including any putative interveners) shall meet and confer in person or by telephone in a good faith effort to resolve the matter without judicial intervention. Any other method of communication (i.e., by email, letter or voicemail) is insufficient to discharge counsel's meet and confer obligation. Any motion or non-stipulated request shall include a written certification that the parties have complied with this requirement. The failure to meet and confer in person or by telephone and/or the failure to include a written certification confirming compliance with the same will result in said motion or request being summarily denied or stricken from the record and/or the imposition of sanctions. This requirement applies to both of the above-captioned actions.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 16, 2013

SAUNDRA BROWN ARMSTRONG
United States District Judge
