The Court has received the United States' response to the Court's Order directing it to set forth its position on whether Docket Nos. 1-7 and 16 may be unsealed. (Docket No. 71.) The Court notes that the titles of these documents are available through the ECF System and, thus, the United States correctly notes that it does appear that all documents in this case were unsealed. The Court's previous order did not make clear that these documents had not been made electronically accessible.
