ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION

The instant matter is governed by ERISA and has been set for dispositive briefing prior to a dispositive hearing on June 21, 2012. The briefing has been set for four filings as follows:

- Plaintiff’s opening brief April 3, 2012
- Defendants’ opposition/cross motion April 24, 2012
- Plaintiff’s reply/opposition to cross motion May 15, 2012
- Defendants’ reply brief June 5, 2012

All briefs carry a 25 page limit. The parties ask the Court to permit the first two filings (Plaintiff’s opening brief and Defendants’ opposition/cross motion) to have a 30 page limit. Good cause exists for the additional five pages of briefing for each filing due to the fact intensive nature of the Court’s de novo review, the volume of documents generated during Mr. Campolo’s disability claims (over 2200 pages), and that no witnesses will be called – necessitating that all facts and arguments are addressed in the briefs.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

Pursuant to the Stipulated Administrative Motion to Exceed Otherwise Applicable Page Limitations, L.Rs. 7-11 & 7-12, and for good cause showing, the Court will allow Plaintiff's opening brief and Defendants' opposition/cross motion to have a 30 page limit.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: 4/3/2012
