UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

AQUIOR ALFONSO FIGUEROA, JR.,

Petitioner,

No. C 11-1072 PJH

v.

ORDER RE RECORD

TOM VIRGA, Acting Warden,

Respondent.

_____/

Petitioner Aquior Alfonso Figueroa, Jr. ("Figueroa") a state prisoner, has filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The matter is now fully briefed. It has come to the court's attention that in the record it filed May 31, 2011, respondent included only its opposition brief on direct appeal before the California Court of Appeal. Respondent appears to have inadvertently failed to include copies of petitioner's briefs on direct appeal before the California Court of Appeal and the California Supreme Court. The record in federal habeas cases typically includes, at a minimum, a full set of the parties' briefs on direct appeal before the California Court of Appeal and the petition for review before the California Supreme Court.

Because the court finds that petitioner's briefs filed with the California appellate courts are helpful and important to its resolution of the case, respondent is ordered to supplement the record with those briefs no later than Friday, July 6, 2012.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 25, 2012
