| 5 | | ORDER REVOKING IN FORMA PAUPERIS STATUS ON APPEAL |
| 6 | WARDEN FONG, et al., | |
| | Defendants. | |

The Court granted Plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding pro 9 se, leave to proceed in forma pauperis in this civil rights action. 10 Upon review of the allegations in the complaint, the Court 11 dismissed the complaint without prejudice and without leave to 12 amend for the following reasons: (1) Plaintiff's request for the 13 restoration of credits forfeited as the result of an alleged 14 unlawful disciplinary hearing is moot because he ultimately was not 15 assessed any credit loss; (2) even if not moot, such request is not 16 cognizable in a civil rights action and must be brought in a 17 petition for a writ of habeas corpus; (3) Heck v. Humphrey, 512 18 U.S. 477 (1994), bars Plaintiff's damages claim based on the 19 alleged unconstitutional deprivation of time credits because such 20 claim necessarily calls into question the lawfulness of the 21 duration of Plaintiff's sentence; (4) Plaintiff's claim for 22 injunctive relief to remedy his alleged unlawful conditions of 23 confinement at San Quentin State Prison (SQSP) is moot, because 24 Plaintiff no longer is incarcerated there; (5) the allegations in 25 the complaint, together with the documents attached thereto, show 26 that Plaintiff did not exhaust administrative remedies with respect 27 to his SQSP injunctive relief claim prior to his filing the instant 28

United States District Court For the Northern District of California 1 action.

Subsequently, the Court denied Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration. Plaintiff has filed a notice of appeal. The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has referred the case back to this Court for a determination whether Plaintiff's in forma pauperis status should be revoked.

7 Rule 24(a)(3) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure provides that a party granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis in 8 9 the district court may continue in that status on appeal unless the district court certifies that the appeal is not taken in good 10 11 faith. Section 1915(a)(3) of Title 28 of the United States Code 12 similarly provides that an appeal may not be taken in forma pauperis if the trial court certifies it is not taken in good 13 faith. "Not taken in good faith" means "frivolous." 14 Ellis v. 15 United States, 356 U.S. 674, 674-75 (1958); Hooker v. American 16 Airlines, 302 F.3d 1091, 1092 (9th Cir. 2002) (equating "not taken 17 in good faith" with "frivolous").

For the reasons discussed in the Court's Order dismissing Plaintiff's claims without prejudice the Court concludes that Plaintiff's appeal is not taken in good faith because it is frivolous. Accordingly, Plaintiff's in forma pauperis status is REVOKED.

24 The Clerk of the Court shall serve a copy of this Order on 25 Plaintiff and on the Court of Appeals.
