The Confidential Settlement Letter shall not be served upon other parties.

The Confidential Settlement Letter shall not exceed five (5) pages of text and shall include the following:

Citations to any key legal authorities relied upon by the parties as part of this evaluation shall be provided.

C. Mandatory Personal Attendance.

Lead trial counsel shall appear at the settlement conference with the parties and with the person(s) having full authority to make the final decision as to whether any settlement offer is

1 made, accepted, or rejected (if full authority does not rest with the party). A person who needs to 2 call another person not present before making, accepting, or rejecting any settlement offer does not
3 have such full authority. If a party is a governmental entity, its governing body shall designate one
4 of its members or a senior executive to appear at the settlement conference with authority to 5 participate in the settlement conference and, if a tentative settlement agreement is reached, to 6 recommend the agreement to the governmental entity for its approval. An insured party shall 7 appear with a representative of the carrier with full authority to negotiate up to the limits of 8 coverage.

9 Personal attendance is mandatory and will rarely be excused by the Court, and then only 10 upon a written request that is timely under the circumstances and that demonstrates extraordinary
11 hardship. Personal attendance may be excused only upon written authorization from the Court. If 12 the Court permits attendance by telephone, the person who is excused from personally appearing 13 must be available to participate by telephone throughout the entire conference.

14 D. Duration and Content of Settlement Conference.

15 It is not unusual for settlement conferences to last three (3) or more hours. Parties and their 16 representatives should be prepared to devote the entire day to the conference if necessary. Parties
17 are encouraged to participate in the settlement conference and frankly discuss their case. Statements
18 they make during the conference will not be admissible at trial in the event the case does not settle.
19 The parties and their representatives should be prepared to discuss such issues as their settlement
20 objectives; any impediments to settlement they perceive; whether they have enough information to 21 discuss settlement and if not, what additional information is needed; and the possibility of a creative 22 resolution of the dispute.

23 E. Continuances.

24 Any request to continue the settlement conference shall state the reason therefor and be 25 submitted in writing as soon as possible after consultation with the opposing party but well in 26 advance of the scheduled conference date. The request must demonstrate a compelling reason for a
27 continuance and shall state whether it is joined or opposed by the other party(ies). Submission
28 of such request shall be filed with the Court; a courtesy copy must be provided no later than 12:00

1 noon on the day after the document is filed. Parties must appear on the calendared date unless
2 the Court issues an Order continuing the matter.

3 If the date to which a continuance is sought would be past a deadline for holding the 4 settlement conference that was set by the judge to whom the case is assigned for trial, the party
5 seeking the continuance must secure permission from the trial judge to hold the settlement
6 conference during the proposed new time frame before seeking the continuance from Judge Ryu.
7 A writing evidencing the trial judge's extension of the deadline must accompany the party's request
8 to Judge Ryu for the continuance.

9 The parties shall immediately notify Judge Ryu's Courtroom Deputy, Ivy Garcia, at (510)
10 637-3639, if this case settles prior to the date set for the settlement conference.

11 Any failure to comply with the requirements of this Order may subject the parties and/or 12 counsel to sanctions.

13 IT IS SO ORDERED.
