- I, Christopher C. Campbell, hereby declare as follows:
- 1. I was awarded a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering. I do not hold any degrees in electrical engineering.
- 2. I was not an intellectual property partner in electrical cases at Hunton's Washington, D.C. office. I understand that Mr. Coddington contends in his Reply Declaration at paragraph 6 that "approximately one-third of [Hunton] attorneys focused on technology matters relating to electronics and telecommunications." Assuming Mr. Coddington's estimates are accurate, I certainly was not one of those attorneys.
- 3. I brought a hearing aid patent litigation matter to Hunton, but my involvement in the hearing aid matter was minimal at most. I nearly completely entrusted the matter to other Hunton attorneys because I did not have the time or the technical expertise to handle the matter. Prior to reading Mr. Coddington's declaration, I could not recall the issue where Mr. Coddington and I collaborated in that matter. I understand from checking the Pacer court docket that the client involved in the hearing aid matter continues to be a client of Hunton & Williams.
- 4. During the timeframe of Mr. Coddington's tenure with Hunton, I estimate that I visited the Washington, D.C. office of Hunton perhaps once every 2-3 months.
- 5. While at Hunton, Mr. Coddington did not report to me and I did not critique his work.
- 6. Mr. Coddington never prepared any memorandum for me on Streetspace matters while he was employed at Hunton.
