

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28Not For PublicationUNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIABILL GRAHAM ARCHIVES LLC, d/b/a WOLFGANG'S VAULT,

Plaintiff,

v.

MARWAN ZEIDAN., et al.,

Defendants.

No. C-11-4916 SBA (NJV)

ORDER REQUIRING FURTHER
BRIEFING RE PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

The district court has referred Plaintiff's ex parte motion for default judgment to the undersigned for a report and recommendation. See Doc. No. 39. The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's moving papers and requires additional evidence to issue its report and recommendation. Although Plaintiff establishes that infringing items published by defendant Afterthought were eventually sold in San Francisco and that Afterthought was served with notice of the action (Doc. Nos. 29, 33-1, 38; see also Doc. No. 1 at ¶¶ 37, 39, 43), Plaintiff does not sufficiently establish that Afterthought, a sole proprietorship located in British Columbia, Canada, is subject to the district court's personal jurisdiction. No later than May 14, 2012, Plaintiff shall file a supplemental declaration describing the minimum contacts Afterthought has had with California, and demonstrating that these contacts (or any other basis for personal jurisdiction) are sufficient to subject Afterthought to the district court's personal jurisdiction.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 3, 2012

Nandor J. Vadas
United States Magistrate Judge