1 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 2 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA 3 4 SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE No. C 11-4941 CW COMMISSION, 5 ORDER ADDRESSING Plaintiff, BRIEFING SCHEDULE 6 v. 7 CHRISTOPHER SELLS and TIMOTHY 8 MURAWSKI, 9 Defendants. 10 11 On October 17, 2013, Defendant Christopher Sells timely filed 12 a redacted motion for partial summary judgment and an 13 administrative motion to seal and noticed a hearing for November 14 15 21, 2013. Docket No. 115. On October 22, 2013, Defendant filed 16 another motion for partial summary judgment but neglected to 17 identify that motion as the unredacted version of the prior 18 motion. Docket No. 120. That same day, Defendant filed a notice 19 of withdrawal of his administrative motion to seal; this notice 20 did identify the re-filed motion as the unredacted version of the 21 prior motion. Docket No. 119. 22

The new filing triggered a delayed briefing schedule that would not provide the Court with fourteen days preparation time as required by the Local Rules. The parties are directed to attempt to stipulate to a briefing and hearing schedule that complies with the Local Rules. If the parties are unable to reach a

United States District Court For the Northern District of California

stipulation, Plaintiff must file an administrative motion for relief from the original briefing schedule. IT IS SO ORDERED. Dated: 10/30/2013 ILKEN United States District Judge

United States District Court For the Northern District of California