ORDER REGARDING DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO STRIKE CLASS ALLEGATIONS

15 At the Case Management Conference on March 18, 2013, the Court stated that Defendants
16 may jointly file a motion to strike class allegations, which may be accompanied by a motion to stay.
17 (Dkt. No. 149.)

18 The Court hereby ORDERS that if Defendants choose to proceed with the motion to strike, the 19 parties shall follow the letter brief process set forth in the Court's Standing Order in Civil Cases for 20 motions for summary judgment. (See Section 9.) Defendants, as the moving party, must file a letter
21 brief with a copy to Chambers and opposing parties, explaining the grounds for the motion.
22 Defendants shall jointly file one letter brief. The letter shall be no more than three single-spaced
23 pages in length, including any attached exhibits or other supporting papers. Within three (3) business
24 days after receipt of the letter, Plaintiffs must file a written response addressing the substance of the 26 limited to three single-spaced pages, including any attached exhibits or supporting papers.

27 After reviewing the parties' respective letters, the Court will advise the parties if additional 28 briefing, a telephonic conference, or a personal appearance will be necessary.
